Staking Our Claim

FSU Foundation Raises Nearly $3 Million in First Public Year of Campaign

At a dinner and program honoring leading donors during the recent Leadership and Homecoming Weekend, FSU and the FSU Foundation, Inc., celebrated raising nearly $3 million since Staking Our Claim: The Campaign for Frostburg launched its public phase one year ago, and set their sights on reaching the final $15 million goal by the end of fiscal year 2011.

Since the 2008 Leadership and Homecoming Weekend, $2,942,880 was raised in support of FSU, with $10.7 million raised so far toward the $15 million goal.

"This is extraordinary, given the state of the economy," FSU President Jonathan Gibraltar told approximately 130 guests assembled in the Lane University Center's Manicur Assembly Hall. "It is also a tribute to your dedication and support, and a sign that our ultimate campaign goal of $15 million is within our sights."

"The economic challenges that the world and our country face are affecting all of us in our work and private lives, to some degree or another," FSUF President Sam Griffith told the honorees. "Yet despite these challenges, all of you have demonstrated exemplary leadership and generosity through your support."

Several individuals and organizations were additionally singled out for recognition.

Special honorees during the evening included:

- NewPage Corp., which has played a significant role in providing FSU with the resources to keep up with technology through an endowed technology fund;
- Russ Younkers, FSU Class of '68, who is helping the Foundation raise much-needed money for athletics through his membership on its Campaign Steering Committee, and who with his wife has donated significantly to athletics and the unrestricted Annual Fund;
- Dr. Joan DeVee Dixon, chair of the FSU Department of Music, a founder and key organizer of Friends of Music, who has provided her personal funds and matching gifts from her late husband's employer to provide musical instruments and other music program priorities;

- Joseph Maley, Class of '50, who attended FSU on the GI Bill in preparation for a career as an educator and established the Joseph E. Maley Endowed Scholarship Fund to help other Allegany County education students;
- Dr. J. Hopwood Wooddell and his wife, Karen Wooddell, who established the Karen and Joseph Wooddell Scholarship for Garrett County students; and
- Nancy Beall, widow of the late Sen. J. Glenn Beall Jr., who with her husband and family established the J. Glenn Beall Jr. Institute for Public Affairs at FSU to encourage young people to embrace public service, and which supports scholarships, internships, outreach programs and research fellowships.

Gibraltar praised those who were honored, saying, "The obvious love and commitment everyone has for the University are absolutely overwhelming, and their commitment and support are just extraordinary."

Attendees were treated to a performance by the FSU Chamber Choir and a video featuring historical images of the school that began in 1898 as Maryland State Normal School No. 2, as well as interviews with some of FSU's strongest advocates explaining their varied reasons for supporting the University. A gourmet meal was provided by Aramark, led by award-winning Executive Chef Greg Carter.

Theatre

FSU Presents

'TopDog/UnderDog'

Poverty, jokes and sibling rivalry are the foundation for FSU's Music and Theatre Department's production of "TopDog/UnderDog," which will be presented as part of the student-directed Second Stage Productions. Performances are set for Thursday through Saturday, Nov. 5, 6 and 7, beginning at 7:30 p.m. in the F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre of the Performing Arts Center.

Recipient of the 2002 Pulitzer Prize for Drama, "TopDog/UnderDog," by Suzan-Lori Parks, is a darkly comic fable concerning two African American brothers, Lincoln and Booth, whose names were given to them as a joke by their father. Abandoned by both parents and forced to depend on one another for survival, the men, now in their 30s, struggle to shed their poverty amid a past haunted by sibling rivalry and escalating resentment.

Tickets for "TopDog/UnderDog" are $6 for FSU students and $12 for general admission. For info, call the Theatre and Dance box office at x7462,

From left, Joaquin Moreno, who plays Lincoln, and Joshua Scurry, who plays Booth

Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Dance

Tribute to Tap Comes to FSU

“Thank You, Gregory” Honors the Late Gregory Hines, Other “Hoofers”

Eight tap dancers, a trio of jazz musicians, multimedia projections and live narration combine when the FSU Cultural Events Series Main Stage Series presents “Thank You, Gregory! A Tribute to the Legends of Tap,” which pays tribute to the late Gregory Hines and past and present “hoofers.” The performance will be on the PAC Drama Theatre stage Wednesday, Nov. 4, at 7:30 p.m.

The cast features Joseph Webb, an award-winning actor/dancer of Broadway’s “Bring in Da’Noise, Bring in Da’Funk”; Chloe Arnold, a protégé of Debbie Allen and dance captain/choreographer; Dormeshia Sumbry-Edwards, also a principal dancer from “Bring in Da’Noise”; Brent McBeth of Bob Fosse fame; comic tapper and singer Heather Holohan, a protégé of Bufalino; Donovan Helma, lead dancer from “Tap Dogs”; and Susan Nase, an internationally acclaimed highland dancer and vocalist.

Adding to the evening’s festivities is the Cultural Events Series’ Preperformance Dinner Club. Guests arrive on campus early, enjoy parking access in the PAC lot and dine on a catered meal in a private restaurant setting in the Lane Center. Dinner includes soup or salad, entrée with sides, dessert and coffee or iced tea. A cash bar is available through dinner. Cost of the dinner is $26 per person.

The late Gregory Hines

Tickets for “Thank You, Gregory! A Tribute to the Legends of Tap” are $20 for adults and $14 for young people under 17. Group rate tickets are also available. Tickets may be ordered by calling x3137 or 1-866-849-9237, or by visiting ces.frostburg.edu. A tap dance film festival will be held in Lane 201 Sunday, Oct. 25, beginning at noon and continuing all evening. The movies being shown will include “Bojangles,” “Singin’ in the Rain,” “Save the Last Dance,” “White Nights” and “Happy Feet.” All movies are free and open to the public. A tap workshop will be held Wednesday, Oct. 28, at 7 p.m. in the Lane Loft. Presented by Nicole Frost, this dance workshop will demonstrate how the “tap dance” has evolved from “Broadway style” to “rhythm tap” and the newest “jazz dance” since the early 1900s. This program is geared toward the beginner to intermediate tap dancer. Participants should wear comfortable clothing, bring tap shoes if possible; otherwise, wear shoes that will “click” and move easily on a wood floor. This program is free, but reservations are required. Contact Melanie Moore at x7420 or cesoutreach@frostburg.edu.

Visual Arts

FSU Presents Printmakers Exhibition

“Miss Sophy” by Shirley Tabler; aquatint etching

FSU presents the Maryland Printmakers at FSU’s Stephanie Ann Roper Art Gallery through Sunday, Nov. 8. The event is free and open to the public.

Maryland Printmakers, a member of the American Print Alliance, strives to keep the traditions of printmaking alive. Up to 40 art works will be on display during the FSU show.

The Roper Gallery is open Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For info, call the Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Music

FSU Presents Two Vocal Recitals

The FSU Department of Music presents two vocal studio recitals, the freshman and sophomore recital Tuesday, Oct. 27, and the junior and senior recital Thursday, Oct. 29. Both will be held at 8 p.m. in PAC Pealer Recital Hall. The performances are free and open to the public.

For info, contact the FSU Department of Music at x4109.

Ghost Hunter to Speak at FSU

FSU’s University Programming Council hosts Ghost Hunter Ross Allison on Friday, Oct. 30, from 8 to 10 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. This event is free and open to the public.

Allison will speak on ghosts and phenomena in today’s world. In 2007, he appeared as an eyewitness and investigator on Syfy’s “Ghost Hunters.” He is the founder and president of the Advanced Ghost Hunters of Seattle Tacoma.

For info, contact the Lane Information Desk at x4411.

Duncan to Read From ‘Dragaman’s Bride’

Writer Andy Duncan will read from his new story, “The Dragaman’s Bride,” at 7 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 12, at Mountain City Traditional Arts, 25 E. Main St. in downtown Frostburg, in an event co-sponsored by Main Street Books.

The final story in the new hardcover young-adult anthology, “The Dragon Book: Magical Tales From the Masters of Modern Fantasy” (Ace, $24.95), “The Dragaman’s Bride” is set in the Depression-era Virginia mountains, stars a young female wizard named Pearleen Sunday and draws on Appalachian folklore of Jack tales, hex magic, haunted coal mines and dragons, or “Old Fire Dragamen” as the old-timers called them.

A Frostburg resident, Duncan is an assistant professor of English at FSU. His next book, due in December from PS Publishing, is “The Night Cache,” a supernatural novelette set in Western Maryland.

For info, call MCTA at x8040 or Main Street Books at 301-689-5605.

Points of Pride

FSU Homecoming Court Raises $11,000 for Charities

Eight recognized FSU fraternities and sororities raised an impressive $11,004.25 for eight charities as part of FSU's Leadership and Homecoming weekend festivities.

For the fifth year in a row, candidates for FSU's Homecoming King and Queen and the organizations they represent raised money for charities as a way to support local and national organizations in need of financial support.

Myah Coleman, representing Alpha Sigma Tau, was crowned 2009 Homecoming Queen, raising $1,430.34 for the Special Olympics. Sean Blaszczyk of Sigma Tau Gamma was crowned 2009 Homecoming King. His organization raised $280 for the American Cancer Society.

- Members of the 2009 Homecoming Court were:
- Dylan Shives of Pi Lambda Phi, who raised $390.86 for the March of Dimes
 - Joshua Humelsine of Phi Mu Delta, who raised $500 for the Animal Welfare Society of Allegany County
 - Amber MacIntosh of Delta Zeta, who raised $4,802 for the Cumberland YMCA
 - Stephanie Gwinn of Alpha Sigma Alpha, who raised $1,401.05 for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Fund Preliminary participants were:
 - Kristie Lee of Phi Mu, who raised $700 for Habitat for Humanity
 - Victor Curtis of Tau Kappa Epsilon, who raised $1,500 for the Alzheimer's Association

As has been a tradition at FSU for many years, students affiliated with a number of campus groups fanned out through the neighborhood adjoining the campus Sunday afternoon for the Big Event, a Frostburg City Clean Up. It was sponsored by the FSU Student Government Association.

FSU Community Donates Supplies to Soldiers

Over the past two months, the students, staff and faculty of FSU have generously donated over 450 pounds of supplies to soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan through the program "Adopt a Platoon."

The program, an initiative of the Maryland State Council of the Vietnam Veterans of America, has been adopted at FSU by Laura Williams, a registered nurse at FSU's Brady Health Center. Students, faculty and staff have been asked to donate supplies through the Health Center for soldiers in need. Supplies can range from all-season greeting cards, toiletries, playing cards and thank-you notes. In the first month of receiving donations, over 60 pounds of toiletries were donated. For October, over 400 pounds of items have been donated and shipped to soldiers overseas.

Each soldier under the "Adopt a Platoon" program will be given supplies based on his or her request or need, delivered from FSU by way of the MSCVV. Soldiers often send back thank-you letters in a show of gratitude for receiving gifts. Terry Whited of the U.S. Air Force wrote, "Thank you, thank you, thank you for all the supplies you have sent. Our store was running low on such items and your package helped over a dozen of us here. We are thrilled to have these items as things we take for granted back home mean the world to us here."

For info or to make a donation, contact Laura Williams at x3018 or e-mail liwilliams@frostburg.edu. For info about MSCVV, visit <http://vva-maryland.tripod.com/index.html>.

Students' Designs Among Winners

Two of FSU's Collaborative Engineering students (Kelly Seaton and David Taylor) were among 10 individuals whose designs were selected to be created by the Cumberland Bike Rack Design Competition. Their work, with the other competitors', were part of the exhibition at Arteco Gallery in Cumberland.

Take Note

Graham Named Associate Dean of Students

After a national search that started in July, Jeff Graham has been selected as the associate dean of students in the Division of Student and Educational Services. In this role, he will address various student behavior issues and provide leadership to the Alcohol Task Force. Specific responsibilities include addressing off-campus behavior, working with the summer orientation program and moving forward many initiatives, including the committee addressing sexual assault issues.

Since 2007, Graham has worked at FSU as a student development specialist, providing guidance and support for first-generation and low-income students. Harriet Douglas, director of Student Support Services, said, "What is a loss for us is a gain for the University." During his time at FSU, Graham has also been an active panel member for disciplinary hearings.

Graham assumed his responsibilities Oct. 21 and immediately started working with the Alcohol Task Force.

Workshops on Alcohol Risks

On Tuesday, Oct. 27, the founder of Outside the Classroom, Brandon Busted, who also launched the Alcohol Task Force in October 2006, will lead numerous workshops to reignite FSU's initiatives to address high-risk behaviors associated with alcohol. Opportunities are still available to work with him during his visit to campus.

Leadership Studies Advising Workshop

The Leadership Studies Minor program is hosting a Leadership Studies Advising Workshop in the Pearl F. Ort Room (fourth floor of the Ort Library) Tuesday, Oct. 27, from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. The workshop will feature a brief activity about the importance of leadership communication as well as details about the minor, including registration information for spring 2010 and leadership opportunities for building your resume. Pizza will be served. Be sure to join the FSU Leadership Studies Minor group on Facebook for details. For info, contact Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski at x4480 or elruminski@frostburg.edu.

Writing Rewarding Resumes

A resume workshop will be held Wednesday, Oct. 28, from 5 to 6:30 p.m. in Pullen 107. The workshop is open to anyone interested in the Communication Studies major or minor. Bring a list of accomplishments or current resume. For info, contact Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski at x4480 or elruminski@frostburg.edu.

Trick or Treat!

FSU's Residence Life Office will offer trick or treating on Saturday, Oct. 31, from 1 to 3 p.m. in Annapolis (starting location) and Cumberland halls. There will also be face painting, guessing games and other fun activities.

So come spend Halloween at FSU and have a spook-tacular good time!
For info, contact the Residence Life Office at x4121.

FSU Fosters Global Education

FSU is increasingly developing opportunities for students, faculty and staff to expand their knowledge of cultures around the world. Thanks to FSU's Chinese Culture Club and Diversity Center, on Oct. 3, the campus and local community got to learn more about Chinese calligraphy, origami, taiji and other activities as part of a special Chinese Mid-Autumn Festival celebration.

From left, Graham Mowl, Helen King, Dr. John Bowman and Dr. Phillip Allen

Helen King and Graham Mowl from the School of Applied Sciences, Geography and Environment, Northumbria University, Newcastle Upon Tyne, UK, visited FSU to further develop an exchange program between the two geography departments. During the visit, many logistic and academic-related issues, as well as the possibility of faculty exchanges, were discussed. King and Mowl met with the faculty of Geography, many geography students, Dr. Joseph Hoffman, dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and Dr. John Bowman, vice provost.

S.A.F.E./BURG

Upcoming Activities

Perception IQ, Tuesday, Oct. 27, 7:30 p.m., Dunkle 218. This new initiative is a high-energy, interactive program that challenges students' perceptions about alcohol, tobacco and other drugs. It also incorporates interesting information to help students critically think about human behavior and mind control.

Get Involved

VDay at FSU

VDay is a global movement to stop sexual violence against women. Come join the group at its weekly meetings Wednesdays at 6 p.m. in Lane 203. For info, contact Dawn Lucas at dlucas0@frostburg.edu.

UCM Events

For info, contact Chaplain Cindy at x7490 or c.zirlott@frostburg.edu.

Faith Connections Sunday Morning. Want to visit various churches in the area but don't want to go alone? Join Chaplain Cindy Sunday for breakfast treats at 9:15 to 9:30 a.m. in 161 Tawes Hall. The group will decide which church to visit that day.

True North. True North will meet at 7:30 p.m. in 161 Tawes Hall. The program has begun a new discussion series on "Reality Show: Gospel Journey Colorado Rockies." The group will watch an episode each week about people with different belief systems on a hike through the Rockies. A discussion of the topics and beliefs the characters demonstrated will follow.

Agape Latte. Agape Latte is an opportunity to have an informal conversation with Chaplain Cindy in Java City on Mondays at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. You set the agenda and Chaplain Cindy will treat you to a latte (or Java City drink of your choice).

Spiritual Study Breaks. Wednesday study breaks are at 9 p.m. in Cook Chapel and include Christian music, videos and various prayer acts and praise experiences. The focus in October is praying as Jesus taught. The group is continuing its talent search for FSU students, staff or faculty who would like to start a praise band.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes Huddle Group Bible Study. UCM is sponsoring the FSU Huddle Group, which meets Thursdays from 8 to 9 p.m. in 161 Tawes Hall. FCA is the largest Christian sports organization in America and focuses on serving local communities by equipping, empowering and encouraging coaches, trainers and student athletes to make a difference for Christ.

MCTA Offerings

The following is a list of Mountain City Traditional Arts’ October offerings. For info, call x8040 or e-mail mountaincitytradarts@gmail.com.

Basic Sewing and Quilting Project Class

This class will be Mondays through Nov. 9 from 5:30 to 8 p.m. Beginners will learn basic sewing techniques, including how to follow a pattern, and sewing stitches. Participants need to bring their sewing machines (extras may be available). Those wanting to pursue quilting are encouraged to bring in projects and ideas. Cost is $5 a session or $22 for the term.

“Smells Like Teen Knitting”

The group meets Tuesdays from 7 to 8:30 p.m. through the fall. Beginning to advanced knitters ages 12-20 are welcome.

Tarot Card Readings

Readings will be offered Thursday, Oct. 29, from 5 to 7 p.m. The reader, Christina Williams, a student at FSU, believes that through tarot people can gain insight into themselves as well as the problem at hand. She uses the Sacred Circle tarot cards in an extended Celtic cross spread, which she says gives the most feedback. Readings average 15 minutes and are $10. Proceeds benefit continued program offerings at MCTA.

You Can Do It!

Rosie the Riveter, the cultural icon who represented U.S. women who stepped up to work in factories during World War II, will be back in force to kick off this year’s Cumberland Goes to War event. A Rosie the Riveter Photo Contest will be held Saturday, Oct. 31, from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. at Town Center in Downtown Cumberland. Get your photo taken to enter the search for Cumberland’s Official Rosie. The winner will have her image featured on event publicity and win two tickets to the Andrew Sisters Tribute Show (Nov. 6 at the Cumberland Holiday Inn). Dress up and come down (or just stop by; costumes will be provided on site).

There’s no fee to enter. For info, call 301-722-2450 or visit www.cumberlandgoestowar.com.

Fall Fest Is Coming!

University Neighbors, an association of residents and property owners in the neighborhood adjacent to FSU, is holding its annual Fall Fest with the Frostburg Museum Sunday, Nov. 1, from 6 to 9 p.m. at the Frostburg Museum, 69 Hill St. Everyone is encouraged to come in costume. Admission is nonperishable food items for the Frostburg Food Pantry. There will be craft activities for children, pumpkin decorating, haunted museum tours, a haunted house, door prizes and refreshments, including caramel apples. The FSU fraternities and sororities will participate in a pumpkin-carving contest, with prizes awarded to the most creative entry.

University Neighbors sponsors the Fall Fest each year to bring together local residents and FSU students, particularly those who live off-campus.

For info, contact any member of University Neighbors’ Leadership Team: Maxine Bond (301-689-5464), Lois Deasy (301-689-8082), Eleanor Miller (301-689-3572), Patrick O’Brien (240-580-4336) or Jeffrey Sellers (321-604-5920).

For info and registration, contact Amy Nazelrod, AFL coordinator, at x7934 or anazelrod@frostburg.edu. Advance registration is required.

Infant-Toddler Swimming Lessons

Classes will be offered Mondays and Wednesdays, Oct. 26 and 28 and Nov. 2, 9, 11 and 16, from 5:30 to 6 p.m. at the Cordts PE Center Pool.

The infant-toddler class is for ages 3 to 36 months. The preschool class is for children ages 3 and 4. Both classes require parents to be in the water with their children. Parents and children participate in water exploration activities to have fun and become comfortable in, on and around water.

Youth Swimming Lessons

Classes for children ages 5 to 12 will be offered Mondays and Wednesdays, Oct. 26 and 28 and Nov. 2, 9, 11 and 16, from 6 to 6:50 p.m. in the Cordts PE Center Pool.

Youth swimming instruction is separated into skill levels based on swimming ability when enrolling.

Message Board

FSU-TV3 cablecasts an automated educational and community message channel when not showing video programming. The message channel provides info about FSU events, non-profit organizations and community events. If you have an activity announcement to advertise on the FSU-TV3 message board, log on to www.frostburg.edu/dept/mcom/channel3/admin-pic/cf_upload.cfm, enter the information and click submit. A graphic or pre-made message can be loaded as well. Submit requests at least one week in advance.

For info, contact Melanie Lombardi at x3011 or mlombardi@frostburg.edu.

Taping Request Form

FSU-TV3 has a Taping Request Form for groups or departments interested in having a speaker or musician taped to air on FSU-TV3. Log on to www.frostburg.edu/dept/mcom/channel3/tapingreqform.htm, fill in all required information and hit submit. Be sure to give FSU-TV3 at least four weeks’ notice.

Attention Seniors

You can take up to 7 credit hours of graduate coursework your senior year. Tuition for graduate coursework is free for full-time undergraduate seniors!

Study Abroad

The Center for International Education offers ways for FSU students to see the world. In some cases, students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester in Ireland, England, Spain, France or many other countries. For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House) or call x4714.
