FSU Offering Free Information Sessions About Sustainability as Part of Focus Frostburg

Sustainability and climate awareness will be the focus when FSU hosts a daylong teach-in as part of Focus Frostburg on Wednesday, April 20. The event is free and open to the public and is designed to be an informative day of educational activities for students, faculty, staff and members of the community. Focus Frostburg will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in FSU's Lane University Center, along with environmental displays throughout the day on the first- and second-floor lobbies of the Lane Center.

During the day, FSU faculty and guest speakers will present 24 50-minute presentations that focus on some aspect of sustainability and climate awareness and cover a variety of topics for all ages and audiences. Presentations include everything from using efficiency technology to reduce energy costs at home and work, to population growth and the risk of water shortages, to drilling for energy in Marcellus Shale. For details about the sessions, visit www.frostburg.edu/lglg for a full schedule.

In addition to the presentations, Earth Week at FSU includes the following events and activities:

- "HOME" Documentary Film, Wednesday, April 20, 6 p.m., Lane Atkinson Room (232) – Using stunning aerial footage from over 50 countries, Yann Arthus-Bertrand provides a stepping stone to further the call to action to take care of our HOME. The film is free and open to the public and is sponsored by the Sierra Club and Learning Green, Living Green (LGLG), FSU's Sustainability Initiative.
- "Reduce, Reuse, Recycle" Poster Contest, Friday, April 22 (Earth Day), 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., FSU Clock Tower – FSU students, faculty and staff can vote on their favorite posters relating to the environment created by FSU visual arts students. People can also vote on Facebook by visiting FSU's LGLG Facebook page (www.facebook.com/frostburglglg).

Winners will be included in FSU's LGLG promotional campaigns.

- Native Planting in the Arboretum Sponsored by the FSU Biology, IDIS Honors Seminar, April 22, 3 to 5 p.m., Gazebo (near the stadium parking lot near the trail to Edgewood) – Students can plant native species in the Arboretum. (See "Get Involved" on page 4 for additional service opportunities.)

For info on Focus Frostburg 2011, visit www.frostburg.edu/lglg or e-mail lglg@frostburg.edu. If you are on Facebook, you can also become a fan of the "Learning Green, Living Green at FSU (LGLG)" Facebook page for regular updates and information.

Theatre

'A Midsummer Night's Dream'

Nora Grider as Peaseblossom (the fairy), with Nick Carter and Shelby Herbert

University Theatre will present William Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" Thursday through Saturday, April 21 to 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the Drama Theatre of the Performing Arts Center.

One of Shakespeare's warmest comedies, FSU's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" is set in the roaring '20s jazz era of New Orleans, where deep in a bayou on a moonlit night, three stories of love and aspiration intertwine when love potions take hold in a fairy world and go feverishly awry.

For info, contact the Theatre and Dance Box Office at x7462 weekdays from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m. Tickets are $6 for students and $12 for the general public. Group discounts are available when booked in advance.

Music

Note: Unless otherwise noted, recitals and concerts will take place in PAC Pealer Recital Hall and are free and open to the public. For info, contact the Dept. of Music at x4109.

Rescheduled – Conklin Senior Tenor Recital

FSU student Lane Conklin will perform his senior tenor recital on Friday, April 29, at 8 p.m. (The recital was originally scheduled for April 9.)

Conklin, accompanied by pianist Hannah Lagno and assisted on a duet by soprano Britany Poindexter, will perform selections by Franz Schubert, Claude Debussy, Richard Strauss, Gioachino Rossini, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart, Roger Quilter, Igor Stravinsky, Gaetano Donizetti and Franz Lehár.

MSO to Perform Verdi's 'Requiem'

The Maryland Symphony Orchestra, led by Conductor Elizabeth Schulze, will return to FSU to finish out the Cultural Events Series season with a performance of Giuseppe Verdi's 90-minute masterpiece, "Messa da Requiem," featuring the FSU University Chorale and the Cumberland Choral Society. The two performances will be held on Saturday, April 30, at 8 p.m. and Sunday, May 1, at 3 p.m.

The large orchestra sound of the MSO will complement the classical "Requiem," which is a Roman Catholic funeral mass written in remembrance of the Italian writer, Alessandro Manzoni. Written for four soloists, double choir and orchestra, the MSO will be accompanied by 120 choral musicians from the Cumberland Choral Society and the University Chorale. Additional guest artists will include soprano Lisa Williamson, mezzo-soprano Maria Dolan Barnes, tenor Jonathan Hodel and baritone Eugene Galvin.

“Requiem” was first performed in 1874 in the church of San Marco in Milan, Italy, and was conducted by Verdi himself. Throughout the work, Verdi used vigorous rhythms, inspirational melodies and dramatic contrasts to express powerful emotions.

Tickets for Verdi’s “Requiem” are $30 for adults and $21 for those under 17. Corporate and group discount ticket rates are also available. Tickets may be ordered by calling x3137 or online at <http://ces.frostburg.edu>.

FSU Flute Studio to Present Solo & Chamber Works

The FSU Flute Studio will celebrate music old and new with FSU students presenting solo and chamber works for the flute and piano. The recital will be held Monday, May 2, at 8 p.m.

The repertoire will include Claude Debussy’s “Syrinx” for solo flute, based on the mythology of Pan and Syrinx. The alto flute will be featured on “Eight Pieces” by American composer Lowell Liebermann, and the opera aria “Non più mesta accanto al fuoco,” the finale of Gioachino Rossini’s opera “La Cenerentola,” will be heard in Frederic Chopin’s “Variations on a Theme by Rossini.”

The FSU Flute Ensemble will perform the second half of the program. Flutists Amanda Kiser and Jessica Bussing will perform with pianist Mengwan Tu. The “Flower Duet” from Léo Delibes’ “Lakmé” will be followed by the virtuosic “Waltz di Bravura” by famed brothers and flutists from the 19th century, Franz and Charles Doppler.

Jazz Ensemble

The Department of Music will present the FSU Jazz Ensemble in concert Thursday, April 28, at 8 p.m.

Dance

Spring Dance Concert to Celebrate Graduating Artists

The Department of Theatre and Dance at FSU will present its Spring Dance Concert May 5, 6 and 7 at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center. With an eclectic mix of group dances choreographed by company members, the concert will celebrate the accomplishments of four seniors and feature styles in ballet, contemporary, modern and jazz/tap.

Seniors Elizabeth Collins, Briana Jordan, Grace Gonzalez and Rita Peacock will choreograph and perform in their final FSU dance concert.

Collins will perform two diverse pieces: “Don’t Come Back at All,” a contemporary dance, and a ballet titled “The Corps.” Jordan has teamed with Jaydee Moultrie on a piece titled “Rhythm Nation.” A dramatic duet will combine Gonzalez’s love for dance and theatre. In “Apartment No. 7,” she focuses on the struggle between two lovers. With a series of collaborative efforts to her credit, Peacock will perform an energetic jazz and tap piece titled “Heat.”

The concert will include 14 pieces, including dances choreographed and performed by faculty member Nicole Frost and company director Jamie McGreevy.

For info, contact the Theatre and Dance Box Office at x7462 (Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m.). Tickets are $6 for students and $12 for the general public. Group discounts are available when booked in advance.

Visual Arts

‘Arete’ Art Exhibition

FSU’s Department of Visual Arts announces the opening of “Arete,” an exhibition of student artwork, on view from Saturday, April 30, through Wednesday, May 4, in FSU’s Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery. The opening reception will be held from 2 to 4 p.m. on April 30 in the gallery.

“Arete” will feature artwork by senior Bachelor of Fine Arts candidates Lauren Hunkeler, Sarah McLaughlin, Francesca Pehr, Sarah Earing and Gabrieline Amankwaa.

Various photography, ceramics, paintings, illustrations, graphic design and printmaking will be on display.

The Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery has free admission and is open to the public Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For info, contact the FSU Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Presentations

The World of Radio

FSU’s new chapter of the Society for Collegiate Journalists will host speaker Amanda Mangan-Rebert on Monday, April 18, at 5:30 p.m. in Dunkle 219. Mangan-Rebert is the news director at Allegany Radio Corp. in Cumberland; she’s also an on-air personality for Magic 100.5. She will discuss the world of radio with attendees and answer questions. Everyone is invited, especially students interested in broadcasting and journalism careers.

For info, contact Andy Duncan (arduncan@frostburg.edu), Melissa Hendricks Boehm (mhendricks@frostburg.edu) or Brent Kice (bkice@frostburg.edu), or e-mail scjatfrostburgstateuniversity@gmail.com.

Spring Festival of Children’s Literature

FSU will present the 29th annual Spring Festival of Children’s Literature on Friday, April 29, and Saturday, April 30.

The theme for the weekend will be “Children’s Literature: Inspiring Compassion, Courage, Friendship and Love.” Kathi Appelt, Carol Buckley, Carmen Agra Deedy and Lita Judge are the award-winning authors and illustrators headlining the event.

The agenda for the festival includes informative small-group sessions and large presentations offered in a personal and relaxed environment. Topics range from literature circles to teaching reading with Smart Boards.

Children ages 5 to 12 are invited to the R. Margaret Hamilton Children’s Hour on Friday afternoon beginning at 4:15 p.m. This event is free and open to the public, but advance registration is required. Age-specific workshops are presented by the authors, in which they share their work with children, as well as the process of writing and illustrating. Open autographing and book sales will be available from 4 to 4:30 p.m. To register, contact Dr. Jodi Welsch at x3096.

For info, contact Dr. William Bingman at x4420.

Pre-orders are available for the books that will be featured at the festival.

AL Seminar Series

Dr. Mark Engle, USGS, will present “Atmospheric Hg, Deposition and Impact to Coastal Environments (From Puerto Rico to Maine)” Thursday, April 28, at 3:30 p.m. in AL Room 109. For info, go to www.umces.edu/al/seminar/schedule.

Points of Pride

FSU Students Honored for Artwork

FSU students were honored for their work in the 2011 Spring Student Art Show recently. The art show, held in the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery, featured 78 pieces of artwork by current FSU students. The six areas of the Bachelor of Fine Arts degree were represented: painting, printmaking, photography, ceramics, illustration and sculpture.

In the two-dimensional category, Garret Minnick was awarded first place for his illustration "Mirror Image." Robert Croft was awarded second place for his painting "Carlos" and Rachel Precht was awarded third place for her work "Skateboard Deck."

In the three-dimensional category, Jodi Akers was awarded first place for a mixed media assemblage titled "Embryo." Second place was awarded to Sarah Earing for a ceramic vessel titled "Don't Hurt Yourself Kid," and third place was awarded to Artemis Constantinou for his sculpture, "Throne of Suffering."

Dennis Sherald, local artist and educator, was the judge for the exhibition and acknowledged the following students for honorable mention: Heather Reedy for "Octopus Garden," Joshua Gambetta for "For the Greater Good," Alyssa Dick for a ceramic vase, Nancy Frost for "Swings," Lindsay Crabtree for "First Day of College" and Abigail Rice for "Mr. Fox Goes on an Adventure."

FSU Honors Sandra Day With Service to Alma Mater Award

Sandra Day with outgoing Alumni Association President Ron Forrester

The FSU Alumni Association has honored Sandra Day of Mt. Airy, Md., a 1967 Frostburg graduate, with the Service to Alma Mater award for her consistent dedication to the advancement of FSU.

Day is the former president of the association and a member of the FSU Foundation Board of Directors. She has recruited numerous alumni to serve on the Alumni Association board, has helped the University's admissions office with new student recruitment and has advocated for FSU to legislators in Annapolis. Day has also been instrumental in establishing the Alpha Xi Delta Scholarship, which supports FSU students with a preference given to members or those with family who are members of the national sorority, as well as those who reflect the group's values of education and service.

Day is a retired educator, serving for 32 years as a teacher and counselor in Montgomery County, Md., public schools.

This award recognizes alumni who, through their consistent involvement and dedication, have made exceptional contributions to the advancement of FSU and have encouraged other alumni to take an active role in supporting their alma mater.

For info about the FSU Alumni Association, call x4068 or e-mail alumni@frostburg.edu.

Alpha Sigma Alpha a Part of Enough Is Enough

Alpha Sigma Alpha worked out with Scott Cole! A few sisters won Scott Cole DVDs to help keep in shape.

Alpha Sigma Alpha also supported the Enough is Enough Harmony Walk.

Casto Serving as Sen. Mike Miller's Intern

FSU senior Taylor Casto is spending her spring semester serving as an intern for Maryland Senate President Mike Miller, through FSU's J. Glenn Beall Jr. Public Affairs Institute.

Casto, of Chesapeake Beach, Md., is a political science major with a minor in international studies.

Casto's internship was funded through the J. Glenn Beall Jr. Institute for Public Affairs at FSU that sponsors a number of educational programs to promote civic responsibility and awareness of governmental and political processes. The institute is currently sponsoring six interns, including Casto, in Annapolis serving in both delegates' and senators' offices.

For info about the Beall Public Affairs Institute, contact Executive Director Tim Magrath at x4080.

Take Note

Take Back the Night Rescheduled

FSU's Take Back the Night march, originally scheduled for March 9, has been rescheduled for April 19. The march will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Upper Quad and end with an open mic speak-out in the Leake Room of the Cordts PE Center.

Employee Appreciation Day April 19

The Office of Human Resources invites faculty and staff to Employee Appreciation Day Tuesday, April 19. The day has also been designated as a casual dress day.

The day includes a discounted lunch with music and entertainment from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). Local merchants have provided discount coupons for employees, and there will be prize drawings and giveaways.

Employees can also give back to the community by making donations to benefit the Allegany County Animal Shelter.

Do You Have a Facebook Page for Your Department?

Have you been asked to develop a Facebook page or some other social media presence for your department or program? If so, take advantage of resources available through FSU's eFrostburg Community. This site includes a downloadable marketing plan with strategies for how to communicate through social media, a social media registry and other useful information.

Also, check out the eFrostburg Community Facebook page, which is used to regularly share ideas and articles about social media and higher education, and highlight how FSU is using social media to get the word out about its programs, initiatives, activities and events.

These resources were developed by FSU's Social Media Group, a group of faculty and staff who are considering how social media can be integrated into FSU's overall educational experience and marketing presence.

For info, e-mail efrostburgcomm@frostburg.edu.

Academic Scheduling/Religious Observances

It is FSU's policy that its academic programs and services be available to qualified students who have been admitted to its programs, regardless of their religious beliefs. Students will not be penalized because of observances of their religious holidays and will be given an opportunity to make up, within a reasonable period, any academic assignment missed because of religious observances. It is the student's responsibility to notify his or her instructor of conflicts between religious observances and scheduled course activities.

Students should notify their instructors of conflicts and make arrangements for making up missed work before an absence due to a religious observance.

Room Registration

The Residence Life Office is conducting room registration for the residence halls for the coming year. Regardless of where they want to live on campus, students must preregister for the process online at www.welcome-mat.net/frostburg/terms. Students who register during this process will sign a contract that will be in effect for the academic year.

- The lottery schedule is as follows:
- Single room sign-up – new this year: You will be permitted to sign up according to your enrollment appointment for fall class registration. Come to the Residence Life Office any time after your course enrollment appointment to choose from available single rooms.
 - Off-campus students and any other students who did not take part earlier: weekdays beginning April 18, between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m., Residence Life Office.

LGLG – Save the Date

The following dates have been set for the LGLG Committee Meetings: April 19 and May 17. All meetings will take place from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in Lane 113.

For info, contact Lawrence Gingerich at x4360 or lagingerich@frostburg.edu.

Graduating in May?

The 138th commencement ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, May 21, in the Cordts PE Center. The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences will hold its service at 9 a.m., while the Colleges of Business and Education will present their graduates at 2 p.m. Tickets will be required for admission.

Full details about commencement are on the University's website at www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement. For info, contact Brittnei Teter at x4423 or bkteter@frostburg.edu.

Note: The December 2011 commencement will be held Tuesday, Dec. 20.

Call for Submissions

Museums on Main Street, a division of the Smithsonian, with the Maryland Humanities Council, will bring the acclaimed exhibit, “Between Fences,” to Spruce Forest Artisan Village May 6 through June 26. A partner in this endeavor, the Appalachian Independent (www.appindie.org) seeks essay submissions, creative writing, poetry or short audio/digital explorations (3,000 words or less) complementing the exhibit’s themes: boundaries, place and space. “Between Fences” strives to engage audiences, create conversations and inspire community members to come together across borders and backyard fences to share their unique “fence stories.” Submissions will be featured in the Appalachian Independent during the exhibit’s stay in Mountain Maryland and may be incorporated into an onsite satellite display. For info on the exhibition, go to www.museumonmainstreet.org/exhibs_fences/fences.htm. Submissions should be sent to krogerstthomas@appindie.org.

New Educational Programming Starting This Week!

LINK TV Explore With Charles Anneneberg features a range of topics – from animal rights, health and human services and poverty to the environment, education and spirituality. Delivered in short bites, explore films appeal to viewers of all ages, from children learning about other cultures to adults looking for a fresh perspective on the world.

- Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 1 and 5:30 p.m. and Saturdays and Sundays at 10:30 p.m.

P2W, Path to Wellness, is a 30-minute studio production in which conventionally trained Dr. Christian O’Neil explores the world of alternative approaches to healing and wellness. Each episode begins with an interview of an alternative health care practitioner. It will also have an “In the Office” segment in which O’Neil undergoes the healing therapy featured.

By blending conventional and alternative approaches to healing and wellness, P2W demonstrates how these healing modalities can be used together to facilitate wellness in individuals and communities.

- Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 2 p.m. and Saturdays and Sundays at 4 p.m.

Study Abroad

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. In some cases, students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study abroad for a semester or a year. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available.

Limerick, Ireland (Fall 2011)

Students can study for a semester at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Credits will transfer back to FSU. For info, go to www.mic.ul.ie/.

Changsha, China (Fall 2011)

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english/).

Students pay FSU tuition and fees (based on residency status) through their student e-bill account and pay room and board costs to Hunan Normal University.
