FSU to Participate in “Enough Is Enough” to End Campus Violence

Annual Martin Luther King Celebration Kicks Off Week of Programming

FSU will participate in “Enough is Enough,” the national campaign to end campus violence, the week of Monday, April 4, through Saturday, April 9. Each day will have a different theme, and events, workshops and information will be offered.

Monday is kick-off day, starting with the annual Martin Luther King Celebration in the Atkinson Room (232) of the Lane University Center at 4 p.m. Bernard Wynder '78/M'84, assistant vice president of Student Services at FSU, will speak on “Enough Is Enough,” concentrating on community with an emphasis on King’s message of learning to love and serve one another. Wynder is the recipient of numerous awards, including the NAACP Image Award and the “Living Legend” award from Associated Black Charities of Maryland. He serves on the Allegany County Human Relations Commission and was recently elected president of the Allegany County chapter of the NAACP.

Wynder’s speech will be followed by a rally and Harmony Walk beginning at 6:30 p.m., highlighted by the unveiling of the Lane Center wall fountain in the newly renovated lower lobby. Music will be provided by the FSU Chamber Choir, directed by Dr. Karen Soderberg.

Following the Harmony Walk, Dustin Lance Black, Academy Award-winning screenwriter for the movie “Milk,” will speak, beginning at 7:30 p.m., also in the Atkinson Room. In addition to his work as a screenwriter, producer and director, Black is a high-profile civil-rights activist on LGBT issues.

Tuesday is Take the Pledge Day, in which members of the campus community can sign a pledge to take a stand against violence. There will also be the first of a series of brown bag lunches, beginning with “Facing Facebook Feuds” from noon to 1 p.m. in the Lane South Addition (244), which is also serving as headquarters for “Enough Is Enough” week. Members of Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski’s CMST 345/Conflict Management class, with the Allegany Conflict Resolution Center and Alpha Phi Omega, will discuss why it is valuable to face rather than avoid conflict and offer basic strategies and resources for managing interpersonal conflicts that arise as a result of Facebook postings.

President Jonathan Gibraltar and Dr. Tom Bowling, vice president for Student and Educational Services, will lead an online chat on civility on Blog From the ‘BURG (blogfromtheburg.blogspot.com) beginning at 6 p.m. That discussion will lead into the 7 p.m. workshop in the South Addition on cyber bullying and how the web plays a role. FSU students Greg Brightbill and Patty Malatt, representing the BURG Peer Education Network, will discuss how individuals can help stop the practice.

Wednesday, Unity Day, will feature a brown bag session on “Spirituality and Forgiveness” offered by the Rev. Dr. Cindy Zirlott of United Campus Ministry at noon in the South Addition. A workshop on healthy relationships, presented by the Family Crisis Resource Center, will begin at 7 p.m., also in the South Addition. Everyone will also be encouraged to leave a handprint on a “These Hands Don’t Hurt” banner, which will hang from the Lane Center second-floor railing for the rest of the week.

Thursday will be Take Action Day. In addition to an opportunity for students to create posters that will be displayed in the Lane Center, international fitness and wellness guru Scott Cole will present an evening workshop called “Get Crazy, Get Still” in Lane 111 beginning at 7 p.m. The first hour will be aerobic activity, and there will be a second hour of tai chi. Participants can join either or both activities. Also, members of the student organization, BTLGLASS (Bisexuals, Transgenders, Gays, Lesbians and Straight Supporters), will present “It Gets Better” at 7 p.m. in the South Addition.

On Friday, for Beats of Peace Day, members of the campus community will be encouraged to share random acts of kindness that will be used to create a “Random Acts of Kindness” PowerPoint slideshow, which will be on display in the Lane Center lobby. Cole will also return for a daytime workshop called “Get Active, Not Physical” in the Atkinson Room at 10 a.m. and 3 p.m., and “Late Night in the LUC” will feature fun activities reflecting the week’s themes.

Saturday is Campus Cares Day with campuswide community service activities. There will also be an all-day National Coalition Building Institute workshop in Lane 111 from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m.

The “Enough Is Enough” campaign was initiated by NASPA President Diana Doyle in response to the call by the vice president for student affairs at Virginia Tech, Zenobia Lawrence Hike, to take action after the shootings on the Virginia Tech campus. The campaign recognizes that parents, students and community partners are critical allies in the campaign to end campus and school violence.

The week’s activities will be supplemented by information tables and displays. For info, contact Robin Wynder at x4050 or rwynder@frostburg.edu.

Music

Note: Unless otherwise noted, recitals and concerts will take place in PAC Pealer Recital Hall and are free and open to the public. For info, contact the Dept. of Music at x4109.

Mind Culture Music Project Returns

Each year the Department of Mass Communication organizes the Mind Culture Original Music project through which students help established and/or aspiring musicians grow their visibility through various promotional activities.

Students first solicit original music from local and regional musicians to be used on a compilation CD. A concert will also be held Friday, May 6.

If you have an original song (already produced) that you’d like to have considered for this year’s CD, submit it to Guild 119 on or before April 15.

All submissions will be considered for the CD. As many artists as possible will be invited to perform at the concert.

Visual Arts

Student Art Show

The FSU Department of Visual Arts, Kappa Pi and the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery are hosting the 2011 Student Art Show. The exhibition, which includes students from all academic majors, will run through Wednesday, April 6, at the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery.

The gallery is open to the public Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For info, contact the FSU Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Theatre

‘A Midsummer Night’s Dream’

Nora Grider as Puck (the fairy), with Nick Carter and Shelby Herbert

The FSU Theatre will present William Shakespeare’s “A Midsummer Night’s Dream” on Friday, April 15, and Saturday, April 16, and Thursday through Saturday, April 21 to 23, at 7:30 p.m., with a Saturday matinee on April 16 at 2 p.m. in the Drama Theatre of the Performing Arts Center.

One of Shakespeare’s warmest comedies, FSU’s “A Midsummer Night’s Dream” is set in the roaring ’20s jazz era of New Orleans, where deep in a bayou on a moonlit night, three stories of love and aspiration intertwine when love potions take hold in a fairy world and go feverishly awry. Youthful, magical and wild, “A Midsummer Night’s Dream” playfully reminds us that “the course of love never did run smooth.”

For info, contact the Theatre and Dance Box Office at x7462 weekdays from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and 1:30 to 4 p.m. Tickets are $6 for students and $12 for the general public. Group discounts are available when booked in advance.

‘The Importance of Being Earnest’

Oscar Wilde’s “The Importance of Being Earnest” will be presented through April 17 at the Cumberland Theatre.

Nicole Mattis, an associate professor in the Department of Theatre and Dance at FSU, directs this comic masterpiece of romantic entanglements that revolve dizzyingly around a most ingenious case of mistaken identity. Mary Yost-Rushton, an associate professor, plays the supercilious Lady Bracknell. Alums Shea-Mikal Green and Coty Warn square off as Cecily and Gwendolyn with Matthew Cooper, another FSU alum, and Ryan Mullaney playing their suitors. Rounding out the cast are Nicole Halmos, an FSU graduate student, Ron Growden and Don Whisted. Student and group prices are available.

For info, call 301-759-4990 or e-mail boxoffice@cumberlandtheatre.com.

Entertainment

Jungle Joe’s Wildlife Adventure

Part of FSU’s Cultural Event Series Special Events programming, Jungle Joe’s Wildlife Adventure is an eco-adventure featuring an interactive live animal show. It will be presented on Thursday, April 7, at 7:30 p.m. in the PAC Pealer Recital Hall.

Jungle Joe, aka Joe Fortunato, a former police officer who now works as a zookeeper and wildlife educator, will bring 15 of the most popular exotic animals on loan from the Bucks County Zoo and Conservation Society in Warminster, Pa. The animals include the blue and gold macaw from South America; the eagle owl, the largest species of owl in the world; the fennec fox, the smallest fox in the world; the African serval cat; and the Burmese python, one of the largest snakes in the world and now an invasive species in Florida.

Jungle Joe’s Wildlife Adventure teaches children and adults about the diversity of exotic animals throughout the world. The program entertains as it addresses issues of environmental and wildlife preservation. It also emphasizes the importance of recycling to protect the environment.

Tickets for Jungle Joe’s Wildlife Adventure are $15 for adults and $10 for those under 17. Corporate and group discount ticket rates are also available. Tickets may be ordered by calling 301-687-3137 or online at <http://ces.frostburg.edu>.

Presentations

English Colloquium

The Department of English will host an English Colloquium on Sunday, April 10, at 12:30 p.m. in the Lane South Addition (244). Student readings selected from juried nominated works will be presented. Dr. Sydney Duncan, an assistant professor in the department, is the keynote speaker.

Forum on Building Global Diplomacy

Student and Educational Services, the Leadership Studies minor and the

J. Glenn Beall, Jr., Institute for Public Affairs will sponsor a forum titled “Building Global Diplomacy and Global Careers Through Campus Leadership Development Opportunities”

Wednesday, April 13, from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Lane South Addition (244). This forum will feature presentations by FSU students who traveled as part of a leadership delegation to Hunan Normal University. Then, Tom O'Herron, a retired Foreign Service officer, will share his experiences and suggestions about Foreign Service employment opportunities.

FSU is offering more opportunities to engage in “Track III diplomacy” (building global relationships through students engaged in international education opportunities), and this forum offers a way to learn more about them. Other FSU students and faculty who have traveled to HNU as well as HNU students currently attending FSU will be present. Resources that support leadership development opportunities at FSU will be available.

For info, contact Dr. Elesha Ruminski at x4480 or elruminski@frostburg.edu, or Timothy Magrath at x4080 or tmagrath@frostburg.edu.

29th Annual Spring Festival of Children’s Literature

FSU will present the 29th annual Spring Festival of Children’s Literature on Friday, April 29, and Saturday, April 30. Each year librarians, educators, parents and students come to the campus of FSU for the event to share their love of children’s literature and learn more about successful ways to share that love with children.

The theme for the weekend will be “Children’s Literature: Inspiring Compassion, Courage, Friendship and Love.” Kathi Appelt, Carol Buckley, Carmen Agra Deedy and Lita Judge are the award-winning authors and illustrators headlining the event. Each writer has created stories that remind children about the importance of acting with compassion, courage, friendship and love.

The agenda for the festival includes informative small-group sessions and large presentations offered in a personal and relaxed environment. Topics range from literature circles to teaching reading with Smart Boards.

Children ages 5 to 12 are invited to the R. Margaret Hamilton Children’s Hour on Friday afternoon beginning at 4:15 p.m. This event is free and open to the public, but advance registration is required. Age-specific workshops are presented by the authors, in which they share their work with children, as well as the process of writing, illustrating and the enjoyment they can bring. Open autographing and book sales will be available from 4 to 4:30 p.m. To register, contact Dr. Jodi Welsch at x3096.

Appelt is a member of the faculty at Vermont College’s Master of Fine Arts program. She is the author of over 30 books for children and young adults. Her debut novel, “The Underneath,” was a National Book Award finalist and a Newberry Honor Book.

Buckley is a co-founder of the Elephant Sanctuary in Hohenwald, Tenn., for which she was honored with the 2001 Genesis Award and A Hero for the Planet Award. Her children’s picture books, “Travels With Tarra,” “Just for Elephants” and “Tarra and Bella: An Elephant and Her Dog,” reflect her love of elephants.

Deedy was born in Cuba and came to the U.S. as a refugee when she was a child. She has been telling and writing stories for over 20 years, and she has won many awards for her books. Some of them include “Martina the Beautiful Cockroach,” “The Library Dragon,” “The Yellow Star” and “14 Cows for America.”

Judge is an Alaskan native who has written and illustrated various picture books for children. She has won the IRA Children’s Book Award, ALA Notable Children’s Book and the Junior Library Guild Selection. Her works include “One Thousand Tracings,” “Pennies for Elephants” and “Yellowstone Moran: Painting the American West.”

Admission to the festival is by registration only and is limited. Advance registration is required. For info, contact the Centre at x3113 or Dr. William Bingman at x4420.

Pre-orders are available for the books that will be featured at the festival. Autographing will also be available. The festival is supported by the FSU Foundation and sponsored by the FSU Department of Educational Professions and the Children’s Literature Centre.

Appalachian Lab Spring Seminar Series

Dr. Martha Nizinski, NOAA, National Marine Fisheries Service, will present “Beneath the Blue: Exploration, Discovery and Ecosystem Complexity Within Deep-Sea Coral Habitats Off the Southern United States” Thursday, April 14, at 3:30 p.m. in AL Room 109. For info, go to www.umces.edu/al/seminar/schedule.

Advising Sessions

The Center for Advising and Career Services will offer the following Group Advising Sessions to discuss General Education Program requirements and answer questions. All students are welcome; freshman and undeclared students are encouraged to attend.

- April 6, 2 to 3 p.m. and 3 to 4 p.m., Compton 226
 - April 11, 2 to 3 p.m., Compton 226
 - April 13, 2 to 3 p.m., Compton 226
 - April 15, 3 to 4 p.m., Compton 224
- For info, call x3132.

Academic Scheduling/Religious Observance

It is FSU’s policy that its academic programs and services be available to qualified students who have been admitted to its programs, regardless of their religious beliefs. Students will not be penalized because of observances of their religious holidays and will be given an opportunity to make up, within a reasonable period, any academic assignment missed because of religious observances. It is the student’s responsibility to notify his or her instructor of conflicts between religious observances and scheduled course activities.

Students should notify their instructors of conflicts and make arrangements for making up missed work before an absence due to a religious observance.

Open Enrollment – Health Benefits Fair

A Health Benefits Fair will be held Tuesday, April 12, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in Lane 111. Representatives from FSU’s various health plans (Aetna, CareFirst BC/BS and UnitedHealthcare), United Concordia (dental plan) and FSU’s prescription plan will be available as well as other plan vendors – ConnectYourCare, MetLife, Prudential and APS. Additional representatives will include the Department of Budget and Management, SECU, College Savings Plans of Maryland, AFSCME, MCEA, Nationwide, TIAA-CREF and Fidelity. There will be giveaways and door prizes.

For info, contact Lee Ann Nightingale at x4398.

Room Registration

The Residence Life Office is conducting room registration for the residence halls for the coming year. Regardless of where they want to live on campus, students must preregister for the process online at www.welcome-mat.net/frostburg/terms. Students who register during this process will sign a contract that will be in effect for the academic year.

The lottery schedule is as follows:

- Single room sign-up – new this year: You will be permitted to sign up according to your enrollment appointment for fall class registration. Come to the Residence Life Office any time after your course

- enrollment appointment to choose from available single rooms. (Your lottery number is irrelevant.)
- Cluster/group sign-up for students who want to sign up in a cluster in Frederick or Westminster Hall (with at least three others): Wednesday, April 13, starting at 8 p.m., Lane Atkinson Room (232).
 - Regular room lottery for students who want to sign up for a room in Frederick or Westminster Hall or any other available rooms: Wednesday, April 13, starting at 9:30 p.m., Lane Atkinson Room.
 - Off-campus students and any other students who did not take part earlier: weekdays beginning April 18, between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m., Residence Life Office.

LGLG – Save the Date

The following dates have been set for the LGLG Committee Meetings: April 19 and May 17. All meetings will take place from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in Lane 113.

For info, contact Lawrence Gingerich at x4360 or lagingerich@frostburg.edu.

Graduating in May?

The 138th commencement ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, May 21, in the Cordts PE Center. The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences will hold its service at 9 a.m., while the Colleges of Business and Education will present their graduates at 2 p.m. Tickets will be required for admission.

Community

Help Save a Life!

The Allegany County Animal Shelter, at 716 Furnace St. in Cumberland, is accepting foster applications. With the coming of spring, the shelter is filling up fast, making the need for foster homes critical. By fostering, you can help save a life, and the shelter can accommodate other homeless animals.

For info, contact Tina Rafferty at trafferty@twrwifi.net or x3826.

Students Wanted for Upward Bound

The Upward Bound Program of FSU is accepting applications. This pre-college program is designed to assist 77 qualified Allegany County students in developing the skills necessary for success in high school and college. FSU's program serves rising ninth graders through graduating high school seniors. The program is free to participants.

UB is structured as a year-round program that offers an academic year component and a six-week summer residential program.

Applications are accepted from students from grades eight through 11.

The academic year and summer components of the program offer core classes in laboratory science, mathematics, writing, literature and foreign language.

For six weeks each summer, FSU's UB program offers its students a simulated residential college experience on the FSU campus.

Students must have the potential for post-secondary education, plus meet one or both of the following criteria: have a first-generation college status and/or come from a family with a modest income.

For info or an application, call the UB office at x4994, visit the website at www.frostburg.edu/clife/ubp or visit 121 Sand Spring Hall.

AAUW Meeting

The Frostburg Branch of the American Association of University Women will meet Tuesday, April 5, at 7 p.m. at the United Methodist Church on Main Street.

Deadlines

Graduation Exceptions

Planning a May 2011 graduation? If your official degree progress report indicates you have not completed all requirements and you have a basis to request an exception, submit your written appeal letter and supporting letters and documentation to the Academic Standards Subcommittee, Office of the Provost, Hitchins 213, by 4 p.m. on April 14 for the April meeting (last chance for graduation exceptions and inclusion in the Commencement Booklet). For info, call the Provost’s Office at x4212.

Jobs, Jobs, Jobs

Summer Jobs at Edgewood Commons

Edgewood Commons is hiring summer resident assistants and apartment preparation/painting workers for the summer season. Free housing will be offered as part of the compensation, as well as hourly wages. Check out the website at www.edgewoodcommonsapts.com or stop by the office for application forms and job descriptions. The deadline for applications is April 17. For info, call 301-689-1370.

Student Life

Edgewood Commons

Edgewood Commons still has space for spring 2011! Application forms are available at www.edgewoodcommonsapts.com. Return completed forms to the Edgewood office with the application fees. Stop by during the week from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to take a tour. For info, call 301-689-1370 or e-mail info@edgewoodcommonsapts.com.

Internships

Upcoming Meetings
