FSU Foundation Gives Pinnacle Award to Gladys Wensel Faherty

The FSU Foundation, Inc., has honored Gladys Wensel Faherty, a member of the Frostburg class of 1955, with the Pinnacle Award, its highest honor, in recognition of the time, treasure and hard work she has given to the Foundation in its support of the mission of FSU.

Faherty, only the seventh person to receive the Pinnacle Award, served two terms as president of the Foundation and has been active in alumni affairs, including serving as past president of the Alumni Association. Grateful for the opportunities and assistance that she was given to attend college, she created the Wensel-Faherty Scholarship, providing financial support to FSU students from Allegany and Garrett counties in 1991, and has continued to build on that fund. To date, 62 Frostburg students have benefited from her generosity.

"Sam Ewing has said, 'Hard work spotlights the character of people: Some turn up their sleeves, some turn up their noses and some don't turn up at all,'" said FSUF President Sam Griffith, presenting the award. "Whenever her beloved alma mater asks, Gladys Faherty shows up, rolls up her sleeves and, instead of turning up her nose, puts her nose to the grindstone."

"I have known Gladys for many years. She has devoted much of her time, talent and treasure to the Foundation in support of the University," wrote Ken Kennedy, fellow Pinnacle Award recipient and long-time Foundation treasurer, in his nomination letter. "Her compelling interest in the financial aspects of the board has always been directed toward increasing and maximizing the monies available to students for scholarships."

"Giving is contagious," Faherty said. "Once you start, you can't stop."

Faherty taught physical education at Beall High School for nine years and served for 26 years as the media specialist at Mount Savage School, as well as the coordinator for the Gifted and Talented Program. She also volunteered as a computer teacher at St. Peter's School in Westernport for 12 years.

Created in 1993, the Pinnacle Award recognizes individuals who have made significant contributions of time, talent or treasures in support of the educational mission of FSU through the Foundation. For info, visit foundation.frostburg.edu.

Hunan University of Commerce, FSU Sign Letter of Intent

A delegation of officials from the Hunan University of Commerce, Changsha, China, visited FSU on March 8, signing a letter of intent that is the first building block in working together to promote exchange and collaboration in education and research.

HUC Chancellor Dr. Tang Weibing led the delegation, which included the University's Vice President Lei Houjian, and members of the faculty and administration. They met with FSU President Jonathan Gibraltar, Provost Stephen Simpson, College of Business Dean Ahmad Tootoonchi and other officials responsible for welcoming international students.

The HUC delegation came to Frostburg to begin the process of building a relationship. The two institutions have mutual academic and educational needs, and the letter of intent will allow them to work together to promote exchange and collaboration, including exchanging students, faculty and programs. HUC and FSU, in particular, want to achieve an active exchange of students and faculty in the undergraduate Business Administration and graduate Master of Business Administration programs.

Tang told Gibraltar that both universities have a similar tradition of caring for students. Tang had previously held a position at Hunan Normal University and was present when Gibraltar spoke there in 2008. HNU was the first Chinese university to partner with FSU, and 26 HNU students are enrolled at FSU. In addition, nine FSU students who are members of the President's Leadership Circle and three faculty and staff members will travel to China to visit HNU during spring break as part of a leadership study tour.

For info, contact Vice Provost John Bowman at x4211 or Tracy Klickman, director of the Center for International Education, at x4717.

Music

Javon Jackson Band

Internationally recognized tenor jazz saxophonist Javon Jackson brings his own style of jazz to Windsor Hall at Town Centre in downtown Cumberland on Friday, April 1, at 8 p.m. Presented by FSU's Cultural Events Series Jazz Club, the Javon Jackson Band performance is a show jazz enthusiasts will not want to miss. An educational session is also scheduled for 4:30 p.m.

Playing professionally in clubs since he was 16, Jackson was mentored by jazz great Branford Marsalis. After graduating from Boston's prestigious Berklee School of Music and earning a master's degree in music, Jackson became a sought-after entertainer.

Jackson's current musical group, the Javon Jackson Band, incorporates many styles, including jazz, funk, R&B and rock. He often departs from his hard bop jazz roots and adds a mix of soul and funk.

Tickets for the Javon Jackson Band are $18 for adults, $13 for FSU employees and those under 17, and $3 for FSU students. Corporate and group discount ticket rates are also available. Tickets may be ordered by calling 1-866-TIXX-CES (1-866-849-9237) or x3137, or go to <http://ces.frostburg.edu>.

As part of CES' Arts for Enrichment series, on April 1 at 4:30 p.m., also at Windsor Hall, Jackson will present an interactive educational session in which he will share his love of acoustic jazz and talk about "selecting recordings that have special meaning for me," while paying tribute to performers that have inspired him. Participants will be able to interact with the artist. Reservations are required. For info, call x7420 or e-mail cesoutreach@frostburg.edu.

Mind Culture Music Project Returns

Each year the Department of Mass Communication organizes the Mind Culture Original Music project through which students help established and/or aspiring musicians grow their visibility through various promotional activities.

Students first solicit original music from local and regional musicians to be used on a compilation CD. A concert will also be held Friday, May 6.

If you have an original song (already produced) that you'd like to have considered for this year's CD, submit it to Guild 119 on or before April 15. If you have a song you would like to record, e-mail mcom@frostburg.edu or call x4146 on or before April 1.

All submissions will be considered for the CD. As many artists as possible will be invited to perform at the concert.

Theatre

'Orphans' Closes Second Stage Season

FSU will present Lyle Kessler's tale of dysfunctional brotherly love, "Orphans," on Thursday through Saturday, March 31 to April 2, at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center's F. Perry Smith Studio Theatre. The performance, the final of the Second Stage University Theatre season, will be directed by senior theatre major, Ben Arden.

In a rundown house in Philadelphia, orphan brothers rely on each other for survival. The play is a comic-drama filled with twisted humor, dysfunctional love and gritty, sometimes harsh, appeal.

For info, contact the Theatre and Dance Box Office at x7462. Tickets are $6.

Literature

29th Annual Spring Festival of Children's Literature

Authors Kathi Appelt, Carol Buckley, Carmen Agra Deedy and Lita Judge

FSU will present the 29th annual Spring Festival of Children's Literature on Friday, April 29, and Saturday, April 30. Each year librarians, educators, parents and students come to FSU to share their love of children's literature and learn about successful ways to share that love with children.

The theme for the weekend will be "Children's Literature: Inspiring Compassion, Courage, Friendship and Love." Kathi Appelt, Carol Buckley, Carmen Agra Deedy and Lita Judge are the authors and illustrators who will headline the event.

The agenda for the festival includes informative small-group sessions and large presentations offered in a personal and relaxed environment. Topics range from literature circles to teaching reading with SMART Boards.

Children ages 5 to 12 are invited to the R. Margaret Hamilton Children's Hour on Friday afternoon beginning at 4:15 p.m. This event is free and open to the public, but advance registration is required. Age-specific workshops are presented by the authors, in which they share their work with children, as well as the process of writing and illustrating. Open autographing and book sales will be available from 4 to 4:30 p.m. To register, contact Dr. Jodi Welsch at x3096.

Appelt is a member of the faculty at Vermont College's Master of Fine Arts program. She is the author of over 30 books for children and young adults and has received numerous awards, including the Children's Choice Award. Her debut novel, "The Underneath," was a National Book Award finalist and a Newberry Honor Book.

Buckley is a co-founder of the Elephant Sanctuary in Hohenwald, Tenn., for which she has been honored with the 2001 Genesis Award and A Hero for the Planet Award. She has been featured in People and The New York Times Magazine. Her children's picture books, "Travels with Tarra," "Just for Elephants" and "Tarra and Bella: An Elephant and Her Dog," reflect her passion for elephants.

Deedy was born in Cuba and came to the U.S. as a refugee when she was a child. She has been telling and writing stories for over 20 years and has won numerous awards for her books. Some of her books include "Martina the Beautiful Cockroach," "The Library Dragon," "The Yellow Star" and "14 Cows for America."

Judge is an Alaskan native who has written and illustrated various picture books for children. She has won many awards, including the IRA Children's Book Award, ALA Notable Children's Book and the Junior Library Guild Selection. Her works include "One Thousand Tracings," "Pennies for Elephants" and "Yellowstone Moran: Painting the American West."

Admission to the festival is by registration only and is limited in number. Advance registration is required. For info, contact the Centre at x3113 or Dr. William Bingman at x4420.

Pre-orders are available for books featured at the festival. Autographing will also be available. The festival is supported by the FSU Foundation and sponsored by the FSU Department of Educational Professions and the Children's Literature Centre.

Visual Arts

FSU Presents Faculty Art Exhibition

FSU's Department of Visual Arts faculty exhibition will be on view Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. through Monday, March 28, in the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery in the Fine Arts Building.

Jonathan Simon is the new art faculty member in charge of the illustration studio focus. Other participating faculty members include Jackie Brown, Susan Dodge, Robert Hein, Dustin Davis, Mary Susan Bucchino, Dennis Sherald, Pete Herzfeld, Randall Rhodes, Harlowe Hodges, Judy Dieruf, Steve Matthews and Sharon Schade.

The Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery has free admission. For info, contact the FSU Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

First Poetry/Imagery Exhibition

In collaboration with National Poetry Month, the Frostburg Center for Creative Writing invites artists who reside in Western Maryland to enter its first Poetry/Imagery exhibition. The exhibition will celebrate the combination of poetry and visual arts. The deadline for entering is March 30; show dates are April 7 through May 17.

Entries must have a published poem incorporated into the image with the author cited, and the poem must be submitted in its entirety in the text body of the e-mailed entry. Any original two- or three-dimensional work, installation or video projection will be considered. Accepted two-dimensional entries must be framed.

To submit entries, send a 5-inch by 7-inch, 72-dpi jpeg image of the artwork to sedodge@frostburg.edu. Artwork will be displayed in selected venues on Main Street in Frostburg. Entries will be judged by Gerry LaFemina, director of the CCW, and Pete Herzfeld, a faculty member of the FSU Department of Visual Arts. Awards will be given in the categories of two-dimensional, three-dimensional and student work.

For info, visit www.frostburg.edu/4groundfsu, or call x4340.

Student Art Show

The FSU Department of Visual Arts, with Kappa Pi and the Stephanie Roper Gallery, will host the 2011 Student Art Show. The exhibition, to include students from all academic majors, will run Friday, April 1, until Wednesday, April 6. An opening reception and awards ceremony will be held April 1 from 7 to 8:30 p.m. in the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery. The reception is free and open to the public.

FSU students are encouraged to submit artwork for the exhibition on Tuesday, March 29, from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Roper Gallery. There will be a $3 entry fee per artwork, and artwork must be ready to display. Entries will be judged in the categories of two- and three-dimensional.

Winners will receive monetary awards of $150, $100 or $50, and those students who are BFA candidates can earn departmental scholarships.

The Roper Gallery is free and open to the public. The gallery is open Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For info, contact the FSU Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Film

Int'l Film Series

FSU will conclude its screenings of international films Tuesday, March 15, at 7 p.m. in Lane 111 with "Om Shanti Om" from India. The movie tells the story of Om, an aspiring actor living in the 1970s who was murdered and reincarnated into the present day. The film will be shown with English subtitles.

For info, contact Robert Cooper at x4049 or e-mail rmcooper@frostburg.edu.

Presentations

Appalachian Lab

Spring Seminar Series

Dr. Marc Imhoff, Goddard Space Flight Center, will present "Gray Wave of the Great Transformation: A Satellite View of Urbanization, Climate Change and Food Security" Thursday, March 17, at 3:30 p.m. in AL Room

109. For info, go to www.umces.edu/al/seminar/schedule.

Points of Pride

'Vagina Monologues' – 10th Year at FSU

On Feb. 17 and 18, V-Day @ FSU sponsored the 19th and 20th performances of Eve Ensler's "The Vagina Monologues" on campus. Directed by Regina Alderton, this year's production sold over 400 tickets and raised $3,200 for the Family Crisis Resource Center, the Dove Center and this year's V-Day Spotlight: Women and Girls in Haiti. Because of the efforts of V-Day members and student coordinator Marina Byerly, an additional $1,600 was raised; sales of handmade donated scarves and other V-Day merchandise exceeded $4,500.

Each year, many campus organizations and offices come together to make this fundraising possible, including the Women's Studies Steering Committee. In addition to "The Vagina Monologues," the group organizes the Clothesline Project and Take Back the Night. V-Day is a global movement to stop violence against women and girls.

Oscar Nominee Visits FSU Journalism Class

Only four days after the Academy Awards ceremony, Josh Fox, an Oscar nominee this year in the Best Documentary Feature category for his movie "GasLand," visited Andy Duncan's ENGL 336 (Journalistic Writing) classroom on March 3. Fox showed clips from the movie, gave career advice and talked to the students about their own story ideas.

The Maryland Humanities Council sponsored Fox's trip to Frostburg.

For info about the film, go to www.gaslandthemovie.com.

Recreation Society Members Get Dunked

Nine members of the FSU Recreation Society participated in the Deep Creek

Alpha Sigma Alpha Takes the Plunge

Rocky Gap hosted the Hooley Plunge March 5 at Lake Habeeb to raise money for the Special Olympics. Seven Alpha Sigma Alpha girls – Jasmine Hackett, Sara Vollmerhausen, Jennifer Gover, Caitlin Magonigal, Amanda Wallace, Meghan Flood and Bailey Kershner – participated and raised $161.

The grand total in fundraising at Hooley Plunge was over $100,000! All money raised is used within Allegany County.

Take Note

Grand Opening!

Hit music station 94.1 WQZK will kick off the University Store's Grand Opening Celebration live on Monday, March 14, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Come celebrate the newly renovated store in the Lane Center!

- The celebration includes:
- "Grad Fair" in the store from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
 - Ultimate grad basket giveaway
 - FSU and Frostburg apparel giveaways
 - JanSport backpack giveaways
 - Food giveaways
 - Refreshments
 - Contests

There will be a grand opening sale all week – 25 percent off all apparel and 75 percent off all clearance (in store only). Plus, there will be daily specials throughout the week.

LGLG – Save the Date

The following dates have been set for the LGLG Committee Meetings: March 15, April 19 and May 17. All meetings will take place from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in Lane 113.

For info, contact Lawrence Gingerich at x4360 or lagingerich@frostburg.edu.

Mobile Technology Survey

FSU is interested in developing a mobile web presence so faculty, staff and students can access University information on the go using their smartphones, iPads and other portable communication devices.

To determine how much the campus is using mobile technology and ensure a mobile web presence that will be useful for FSU, the eFrostburg Community needs your help! Just take a moment to fill out this survey by March 28 to show how to meet FSU’s specific communication needs.

One lucky participant will get an FSU sweatshirt (donated by the University Store) for taking the survey.

RecycleMania Is Back!

Brought to you by

FSU is once again competing in the annual RecycleMania Tournament, an eight-week competition among over 600 colleges across the country and around the world that ends April 2. FSU is competing to have the highest percentage of recycled materials, the largest number of pounds of recycling per person on campus and the lowest number of pounds of garbage per person. Below are tips that will help every FSU student, faculty and staff member ensure a Bobcat victory!

- Start recycling. Recycling bins are on every floor of every building on campus. Recycling stations have bins for plastic and glass bottles, cans and mixed paper (office paper, newspaper, magazines).
- Only recycle materials listed on the bins. Trash or items that do not match the label contaminate the load and disqualify the bag.
- Get information on how FSU is doing by visiting the Learning Green, Living Green Facebook page at www.facebook.com/frostburglglg. Recycling information is updated weekly.

‘Enough Is Enough’

Campaign Aims to Stem Violence

FSU will participate in the campaign to bring an end to school and campus violence, “Enough Is Enough,”

Monday, April 4, through Saturday, April 9. Each day has a theme, and events, workshops and information will be offered.

Monday is kickoff day, starting with the annual Martin Luther King Celebration in the afternoon in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). It will be followed by a rally, march and the unveiling of the Lane Center waterfall. That evening, also in the Atkinson Room, there will be a talk by Dustin Lance Black, screenwriter of the movie “Milk.”

Tuesday is Take the Pledge Day, in which members of the campus community can sign a pledge to take a stand against violence. Also on Tuesday will be the first of a series of brown bag lunches, “Conflict Resolution,” offered by Dr. Elesha Ruminski and her students at noon in the new Lane South Addition, which will also serve as headquarters for Enough Is Enough week. That evening, President Jonathan Gibraltar and Dr. Tom Bowling will hold a Blog from the ‘BURG online chat on civility. The evening workshop that follows will be on cyber-bullying.

Wednesday, Unity Day, will feature a brown bag session on “Spirituality of Forgiveness,” offered by the Rev. Dr. Cindy Zirlott of UCM, followed by an evening workshop on healthy relationships offered by the Family Crisis Resource Center. Everyone will also be encouraged to leave a handprint on a These Hands Don’t Hurt banner, which will then hang from the Lane Center second-floor railing for the rest of the week.

Thursday will be Take Action Day. In addition to an opportunity for students to create posters that will be displayed in the Lane Center, international fitness and wellness guru Scott Cole will return to campus to offer an evening workshop called “Get Crazy, Get Still.”

On Friday, for Beats of Peace Day, members of the campus community will be encouraged to share random acts of kindness. These statements will be turned into a rotating PowerPoint slideshow that will be visible from many locations. Cole will also return for a daytime workshop, and Late Night in the LUC will feature fun activities reflecting the week’s themes.

Saturday is Campus Cares Day with campuswide community service. There will also be an all-day National Coalition Building Institute workshop.

The week’s activities will be supplemented by information tables and displays. Student organizations are encouraged to get involved. For info, contact Robin Wynder at x4050 or rw Wynder@frostburg.edu.

Advising Sessions

The Center for Advising and Career Services will offer Group Advising Sessions to discuss General Education Program requirements and answer questions on April 6 from 2 to 3 p.m.

and 3 to 4 p.m. in Compton 226. All students are welcome but freshmen and undeclared students are encouraged to attend. For info, call x3132.

Using Social Media to Spread the News

FSU’s eFrostburg Community invites faculty and staff to help spread the word about FSU through social media.

Check out press releases and other information shared on the FSU Facebook page and through Twitter feed. And be sure to “Share” the story or link on Facebook and “Retweet” it through Twitter. President Gibraltar’s Blog From the ‘BURG is also a good source to find important University messages to share.

For those on Twitter, join @frostburgstate in passing along news about FSU by using these hashtags:

- #FSUbobcatpride: Use it to invite Twitter users to talk about FSU. One of these tweets will be used every week on FSU’s Facebook page.
- #stakingourclaim: You and FSU’s Advancement team can use it to share news stories about the Staking Our Claim campaign.

Finally, check out a new FSU Facebook page devoted to social media and higher education: eFrostburg Community on Facebook.

For info, e-mail efrostburgcomm@frostburg.edu.

On-Campus Room Registration

The Residence Life Office is conducting room registration for the residence halls for the coming year. Regardless of where they want to live on campus, students must preregister for the process online at www.welcome-mat.net/frostburg/terms. Students who register during this process will sign a contract that will be in effect for the academic year.

The lottery schedule is as follows:

- Same room sign-up for students who want to return to their current room: through Friday, April 1, online at www.welcome-mat.net/frostburg/terms.
- Single room sign-up – new this year: You will be permitted to sign up according to your enrollment appointment for fall class registration. Come to the Residence Life Office any time after your course enrollment appointment to choose from available single rooms. (Your lottery number is irrelevant.)
- Cluster/group sign-up for students who want to sign up in a cluster in Frederick or Westminster Hall (with at least three others): Wednesday, April 13, starting at 8 p.m., Lane Atkinson Room (232).
- Regular room lottery for students who want to sign up for a room in Frederick or Westminster Hall or any other available rooms: Wednesday, April 13, starting at 9:30 p.m., Lane Atkinson Room (232).

- Off-campus students and any other students who did not take part earlier: weekdays beginning April 18, between 8:30 a.m. and 4 p.m., Residence Life Office.

Graduating in May?

The 138th commencement ceremony is scheduled for Saturday, May 21, in the Cordts PE Center. The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences will hold its service at 9 a.m., while the Colleges of Business and Education will present their graduates at 2 p.m. Tickets will be required for admission.

A Grad Fair will be held March 14 at the University Store from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Students can order their class rings and diploma frames from participating vendors, as well as caps and gowns (provided at no cost) and announcements. Orders must be placed by March 18 at the University Store.

The first commencement mailing is scheduled for March (after spring break) and will be sent to students' local and permanent addresses.

Full details about commencement are on the University's website at www.frostburg.edu/events/commencement. For info, contact Brittnei Teter at x4423 or bkteter@frostburg.edu.

Commons. All applications are due on Wednesday, March 16, at noon in the Residence Life Office.

Edgewood Commons

Edgewood Commons still has space for spring 2011! Application forms are available at www.edgewoodcommons.aps.com. Return completed forms to the Edgewood office with the application fees.

Stop by during the week from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. to take a tour.

Study Abroad

The Center for International Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. In some cases, students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study abroad for a semester or a year. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available.

Limerick, Ireland (Fall 2011)

Students can study for a semester at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Credits will transfer back to FSU. For info, go to www.mic.ul.ie/.

Changsha, China (Fall 2011)

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english/). Students pay FSU tuition and fees through their student e-bill account and room and board costs to Hunan Normal University.

 Jobs, Jobs, Jobs

Student Instructors

FSU's PASS Office seeks student instructors for its fall 2011 Developmental Math Program. Earn money and receive three field experience credits. Instructors help their peers improve basic math skills by implementing programs in pre-algebra and intermediate algebra.

For applications, contact Beth Stallings at bstallings@frostburg.edu or x4442. The application deadline is Wednesday, March 30. Interviews will be conducted in early April.
