FSU's Cultural Events Series to Present the Women of Ireland

Just in time for St. Patrick's Day, the Cultural Events Series at FSU will present the Celtic musical traditions of the Women of Ireland. The performance will take place Wednesday, March 14, at 7:30 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall.

This enchanting full-stage concert showcases the next generation of Ireland's leading female performers. Vocalists Denise Brennan, Michelle Lally and Ingrid Madsen, fiddler Zoe Conway and dancer Siobhán Manson are supported by a large cast of gifted musicians and world-champion dancers.

This event is sponsored by the Peter and Iris Halmos Family Trust.

Tickets are $26 for adults and $18 for youth under 17. Corporate and group discount rates are also available.

For info, contact the CES box office at x3137 or visit CES' webpage at ces.frostburg.edu.

Presentations

Story Slam at Dante's

Frostburg's Center for Creative Writing will hold the annual Story Slam at Dante's Bar in Frostburg. Participants should bring their short fiction to the bar on Tuesday, March 13, at 7 p.m. to sign up. The slam begins at 7:30 p.m. Participants must be at least 18 to enter and are encouraged to invite family and friends to cheer them on.

Writers must bring their own work. Each writer will have five minutes to perform his or her piece of flash fiction, plus a 10-second grace period. The top three winners will receive a cash prize.

There is a $2 cover charge. For info, visit the Poetry Slam website at www.frostburg.edu/cwcenter/PoetrySlam.htm or call x4340.

Site Plan Presentation

Local landscape architect Corey Armstrong will present a draft of the site plan being prepared for the Evergreen Heritage Center on Wednesday, March 14, at 2 p.m. in Gunter 219. The plan includes sustainable design as it relates to environmental and educational aspects, as well as how it serves the general public. This presentation will highlight the design process. In addition to showing digital data in a slideshow, large format drawings and images will be presented.

For info, contact Dr. Matthew Ramspott at meramspott@frostburg.edu or x4412.

Science in the Movies

Join Dr. Joanne Budzien of the FSU Department of Physics and Engineering on March 26 at 7 p.m. in Compton 226 for an evening of clips from blockbuster movies and a discussion of what science says could, would or should happen in those circumstances.

This event is sponsored by the Western Maryland Local Section of the American Chemical Society and is free and open to the public. No RSVP is needed.

For info, contact Dr. Benjamin Norris at bnnorris@frostburg.edu or x4157.

Spring Philosophical Forum Lecture

The Philosophy Department will hold its Spring Philosophical Forum Lecture on Wednesday, March 28, at 7 p.m. in the Lane Atkinson Room (232). The lecture, titled "Why You Should Make Up Your Mind Already: Descartes and the Virtue of Resolution," will feature Dr. Shoshana Brassfield, an assistant professor in the department. The lecture will be followed by discussion.

According to the 17th-century French philosopher René Descartes, if you haven't chosen your path, you are already on the way to remorse and regret. To live a happy and virtuous life, you need to make up your mind and commit!

For info, contact Dr. Jean-Marie Makang at x3089 or jmakang@frostburg.edu.

Rewarding or Wretched Rubrics?

Attention faculty! The Center for Teaching Excellence Advisory Group will host a discussion forum titled "Rewarding Rubrics or Wretched Rubrics? A Discussion Forum on the Validity of Rubrics for Student Assessment" on Wednesday, March 28, from 7 to 8 p.m. in Lane 113.

Faculty will hear positive and negative viewpoints of using rubrics in the classroom for student assessment. The forum will consist of two short presentations (five to seven minutes) in favor of rubrics for classroom use and two short presentations against its use. The remaining time will be devoted to facilitated discussion among the attendees.

To generate thoughtful discussion, the forum will be open to the first 25 attendees.

Anyone interested in being a presenter for either viewpoint should contact Dr. Brent Kice at bkice@frostburg.edu or x4709.

Leadership-in-Residence Program

The Leadership Studies Minor and Amnesty International Chapter at FSU are sponsoring a leadership-in-residence program on Monday, April 2, and Tuesday, April 3. The two-day program will feature leaders and scholars who will participate in a forum discussion, faculty workshop and classroom visits that focus on the discussion of leadership and the labor movement.

A forum discussion titled "To Occupy or Not to Occupy? Leadership in the Labor Movement" will be held on Monday at 6 p.m. in Compton 226. An "Occupy Compton" reception featuring networking with guests will begin at 5:30 p.m. in the second floor atrium of Compton.

The forum discussion will be initiated by five participants, including two representatives of organized labor – Jonna Huseman and Larry Williams, two FSU students – Brett Shepherd and Jacob Hutton and two FSU faculty members – Dr. Greg Wood and Dr. Elesha Ruminski.

As part of their visit to FSU, Huseman and Williams will meet with the President’s Leadership Circle and participate in classroom discussions. A luncheon for faculty and staff will also be held, featuring discussion about “Teaching Students to be Citizen Leaders” and how the University offers experiential learning and leadership development activities.

For info about this program, contact Ruminski at x4480 or elruminski@frostburg.edu, or visit www.frostburg.edu/dept/lead.

Second FSU “Enough Is Enough” Campaign

FSU will participate in “Enough Is Enough,” the national campaign to end campus violence, the week of Monday, April 2, through Friday, April 6. Each day will have a different theme, and events, workshops and information will be offered throughout.

Monday is kickoff day. At 6:30 p.m. the annual rally and Harmony Walk will begin around the MLK waterfall in the Lane Lower Lobby. The walk will be followed by a 7 p.m. presentation by FSU alum, Theresa Harrison, and entrepreneur and author Natasha Richburg on “Using Conflict as a Tool for Growth: Being Right and Doing Right are NOT the Same.”

Tuesday is Take the Pledge Day, in which members of the campus community can sign a pledge to take a stand against violence. There will also be the first of a series of brown-bag lunches. The evening program will include a showing of the Breaking Through the Glass video, “It Gets Better.” The program, to be held in the Lane Atkinson Room (232), will begin at 7 p.m.

Wednesday, April 4 (the anniversary of the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.), will start with a 4 p.m. celebration. The evening workshop will be the second in a series of “Campus and Community Dialogues” in Lane Manicur Hall.

Thursday will be Take Action Day. A noon to 2 p.m. brown-bag lunch series sponsored by members of Dr. Elesha L. Ruminski’s CMST 345 Conflict Management class will be held in the Atkinson Room. The evening program will be “Welcome to the Party,” an interactive program focusing on sexual assault and alcohol abuse, from 7 to 8:30 p.m., also in the Atkinson Room.

On Friday, for Beats of Peace Day, members of the campus NCBI team will present a “FSU Building Community Through Diversity” workshop from noon to 4 p.m.

The week’s activities will be supplemented by information tables and displays. For info, contact Robin Wynder at x4050 or rwinder@frostburg.edu.

Call for Presentations

“FOCUS FROSTBURG 2012: ‘Learn-In’ for a Sustainable Future” will be held Wednesday, April 18, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Lane Center.

FOCUS FROSTBURG is FSU’s annual day of learning on sustainability and climate awareness that is free and open to FSU students, faculty, staff and the community.

Film

Int’l Film Series

On Tuesday, March 13, the Office of Student Activities and Greek Life and the University Programming Council will present the last film in their third annual Bridges to the World International Film Festival. The Turkish film “Dondurmam Gaymak” (“Ice Cream, I Scream”) will be shown at 7 p.m. in Lane 111. The event is free and open to the public. The movie will have English subtitles.

Set in the town of Mugla (near the Aegean Sea), “Ice Cream, I Scream” is an award-winning comedy about ... ice cream. Using a cast of non-professional actors from the town – except for the lead – director Yüksel Aksu creates a quirky story that taps into his youthful experiences as an apprentice to an ice cream salesman.

In the film, independent salesman Ali tours the rural areas around Mugla on his new yellow motorcycle and cart, selling homemade ice cream. When his bike and cart disappear, he blames the big ice cream companies and seeks revenge. But did one of them really steal his bike and cart, or is someone else responsible?

Evoking Italian neo-realism, “Ice Cream, I Scream” comments on religion, sex, marriage, drinking, politics and capitalism.

You can visit Aksu’s website at www.yukselaksu.com.

For info, contact Robert Cooper at x4049.

Music

Open Mic Nights

The Department of Mass Communication and the Mind Culture Original Music project will present the second Open Mic Night for aspiring musicians, poets, comics and other artists on Thursday, March 15, from 5:30 to 10 p.m. in the Lane Center Loft. Time slots will be assigned at 5 p.m. Events are free and open to the public.

The Mind Culture Original Music project is designed to help artists in and around the Frostburg area receive more exposure. During the spring semester, as part of a Mass Communication class, students will solicit original music and, when necessary, record and produce songs for interested artists. All songs submitted will be considered for inclusion on the compilation CD. At the end of the semester, some artists appearing on the CD will be invited to play a live show at an area venue.

For info about the Mind Culture Original Music project, come to the Open Mic Night event or contact the Mass Communication Department at x3049 or mcom@frostburg.edu.

Workshops

Seventh Annual Art and Writing Workshop

The FSU Center for Creative Writing, with the Allegany Arts Council, will host the Seventh Annual Art and Writing Workshop on Saturday, March 31, from noon to 4:30 p.m. in Dunkle 101. The workshop will feature two sessions to choose from: “Making Art From Literature” by Jamison Odone and “Art as a Muse” by Gabrielle Zane.

Odone is an assistant professor of visual arts and is in charge of the illustration focus at FSU. He is a published author and illustrator, and his first book, “Honey Badgers,” was critically acclaimed in 2007. He is currently working on a 40-page picture book, “Mole Had Everything,” to be released in April. In his session, “Making Art From Literature,” participants will create text and image pieces, primarily through drawing and hand-lettering. Participants should bring pens, pencils and erasers, as well as colored pencils or markers. Students should also bring whatever text sources inspire them.

Zane is a performer, writer and visual artist and has taught creative writing, performance and visual arts throughout New England. She was the 1997 Connecticut Individual Performance Poetry Champion and winner of the 1997 Slam Master’s Slam in Chicago. Curbstone Press published her chapbook of poems, “Being Your Eyes.” In her session, “Art as a Muse,” participants will learn how to interact with and respond to all types of art to create stories and poems. Students are encouraged to bring pictures of their favorite artwork.

The event is free and open to the public. For info or to register, email cwcenter@frostburg.edu with your name, address and workshop selection.

Visual Arts

FSU Student Exhibit at Frostburg Museum

The Frostburg Museum is showing an exhibition by the Kappa Pi International Art Fraternity and other FSU art students through March 24.

The show includes works of art in various two- and three-dimensional mediums, including photography, painting, graphic design and ceramics.

The Frostburg Museum is open Tuesday through Saturday from noon to 5 p.m. Admittance to the museum is free. (Donations are appreciated.)

For info, contact Garry Ritchie at 301-689-1195 or FrostburgMuseum@Verizon.net. The museum is also on the web at FrostMuseum.Allconet.org and is on Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter.

All-Student Art Show

Winning pieces will be displayed in the Stephanie Ann Roper Gallery in the Fine Arts Building through March 25.

The Roper Gallery exhibits are free and open to the public. The gallery is open Sunday through Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. For info, contact the FSU Department of Visual Arts at x4797.

Theatre

‘Women in the Civil War’ Celebrates Women’s History

In commemoration of Women’s History Month, the Women’s Studies program at FSU will present “Women in the Civil War” on Tuesday, March 27, at 7 p.m. in Lane Manicur Hall. This event is free and open to the public.

Conceptualized by WMST faculty members Dustin Shaffer, Mary Anne Lutz and Eleanor McConnell, and directed by Shaffer, “Women in the Civil War” is a collage of monologues characterizing the unique contributions of women during one of America’s most trying times. From women who dressed like men to fight as soldiers, to spies, nurses and wives, this piece is sure to ignite curiosity and awareness during the 150th-year anniversary of the conflict.

For info, contact Shaffer at dkshaffer@frostburg.edu. Tickets are not needed for this event.

Points of Pride

Students Present at Honors Council’s Conference

Dr. Amy Branam, an assistant professor in the English Department, and four Honors Program students attended the Maryland Collegiate Honors Council’s Annual Conference in Frederick, Md., in early March. FSU Students Devon Jacobs and Kyler Redmond presented a panel on “Reassessing Race Relations in America”; Patrick Johnson and Danielle Judd presented a panel on the “Power of Language and Song Lyrics.”

The presentations were developed from papers produced in Branam’s ENGL 111 Honors Freshman Composition. In the past four years, Branam has helped students transform their papers into panel presentations for three events.

Take Note

Derek Thomson Sheely Leadership Award

Kristen and Ken Sheely have established a leadership award to honor their son, Derek. Through the generosity of the Sheely family, this award will be accompanied by a $2,000 scholarship.

Faculty, staff and students are encouraged to nominate a deserving student. To be eligible, a student must be enrolled full-time, have a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.4 and have completed no less than 70 and no more than 95 credit hours.

There is also an expectation that the recipient will invest 40 hours of community service to increase awareness and research of concussions and traumatic brain injuries, with a focus on youth sports.

The deadline for nominations is Wednesday, March 14. Nominations should be sent to Kim Martz at kmartz@frostburg.edu. The nomination should include the student’s name and a brief statement indicating why you believe the student deserves this award.

Students nominated will be required to complete an essay in which they reflect on their leadership experiences and how these experiences have shaped their growth as individuals.

Ort Library Goes Mobile

The FSU Ort Library now offers a mobile website providing access to a core set of basic library services optimized for smartphones and other mobile devices. Features include the ability to search the library catalog, find library hours and important contact information, access subject research guides and more. You can even send your reference questions via “Ask a Librarian” from the mobile site.

The link to the new mobile website is <http://libguides.frostburg.edu/mobile/1040>. (The site only appears correctly if accessed from a mobile device.) If you navigate the web from a mobile device, you will be automatically redirected to the mobile site. You can also access the mobile site by using your smartphone to scan this QR code.

Career Advice on Facebook

The Center for Advising and Career Services now has a Facebook page at www.facebook.com/fsucareerservices.

For info, contact Dr. Robbie Cordle, director of Career Services, at x4403.

International

Where Would You Like to Study Abroad?

The Center for Int'l. Education offers various ways for FSU students to see the world. In some cases, students can pay FSU tuition, room and board and study for a semester or a year in Ireland, England, Spain, France, China, Italy, Australia, Peru, Botswana or in many other countries. FSU also offers summer study abroad programs. Financial aid, student loans and scholarships are available. For info, visit the Fuller House (across the street from Braddock House), call x4714 or email Victoria Gearhart at vmgearhart@frostburg.edu. Also check out the CIE website at www.frostburg.edu/admin/cie/stdyabrd.htm.

Changsha, China – Fall 2012

Through the China Exchange Program, FSU students can spend a semester at Hunan Normal University (www.hunnu.edu.cn/english) in Changsha, Hunan Province, P.R. China. Students pay FSU tuition and fees (based on residency status) through their student e-bill account and room and board costs to Hunan Normal University. Living costs are generally less expensive than at FSU and courses are taught in English.

Limerick, Ireland – Fall 2012

Students can study for a semester in Ireland at Mary Immaculate College and pay FSU tuition. Financial aid can be used to help cover the costs of room and board. Credits will transfer back to FSU. Check out the website for Mary Immaculate College at www.mic.ul.ie.

Writing Workshops for Young Students

The FSU Center for Creative Writing, with the Allegany County Library System, ACT Personnel Service and A STAR! AmeriCorps, will host a five-week creative writing workshop series for elementary students and middle and high school students. Workshops will be held on Tuesdays from 4 to 6 p.m. beginning March 27.

Each workshop will combine poetry and fiction lessons with writing exercises, allowing students to produce their own creative works. At the Frostburg Public Library, first through third graders will meet in the Toll House Room with recent FSU graduate

Joanna Eastham, and fourth through sixth graders will meet in the Library Meeting Room with local poet Nina Forsythe. At the LaVale Public Library, seventh and eighth graders will meet in the Children’s Area with recent FSU graduate Darcy Gagnon, and ninth and 10th graders will meet in the Library Meeting Room with FSU student Joe Sherrod.

Workshops are free. For info or to participate, contact Jessica Palumbo at jpalumbo@frostburg.edu or the FSU Center for Creative Writing at x4340.

Frostburg Rotary to Honor Area Women

The Rotary Club of Frostburg is seeking nominations of outstanding women in the Frostburg area who demonstrate “Service Above Self.” Service Above Self is one of Rotary International’s most important tenets.

To nominate a woman from the Frostburg area who shows outstanding community service, send a letter indicating the name of the nominee, a paragraph or two outlining reasons for the nomination and contact information for the nominator and nominee.

The Frostburg Rotary Club is honoring community women in recognition of its 25th anniversary of the acceptance of women into the organization.

Send nomination letters to Bill Davis at Carter and Roque, 9 W. Main St., Frostburg, MD 21532 or email them to the Frostburg Rotary at frostburgrotary@gmail.com by April 1.

New Episode of “Down to Earth”

How do students pay for school with the rising tuition prices? To help answer this question, FSU-TV3 interviewed an FSU financial aid counselor, Kelli Izat, and FSU student Ladi Odunlami. Students around campus will also give their opinions, and hear what paying for college was like for President Gibraltar.

Tune in Monday for the new show at 9 p.m.; the show also airs Wednesdays and Fridays at 9 p.m.

To view previous episodes, log on to www.frostburg.edu/fsu-tv3/programming/original/down-to-earth/dtewatch/.

New Episode of “Bobcast”

“Bobcast,” with host Anthony Anastasio and reporter Madison Martin, will cover the Men’s and Women’s Basketball teams and FSU Intramural sports. Tune in Tuesdays and Thursdays at 8 p.m.
