Good Afternoon,

Just a brief note to thank the students, faculty and staff that came out yesterday afternoon to meet with me. My wife and I very much appreciated the discussion, including the openness, civility, honest expression of feelings, and constructive suggestions.

I am following up on several of the suggestions. The university advisory council which consists of faculty, staff, students, and VPs will look at the policy on chalking on campus. We will also look into other avenues, including social media, to encourage expression of ideas on campus. And, I will work with the appropriate organizations and offices on campus to look for additional ways to bring the campus together. I ask that if you have ideas you would like to share, please do so by sending me an email at president@frostburg.edu

I encourage everyone to take advantage of the many events on campus this week. I think it helps to be with others from the university community.

My Best,
Ron Nowaczyk
