Panhellenic Creed

*This Creed is read at every Panhellenic Chapter meeting by all sororities.
It is the ideals by which sororities were founded.*

We, as Undergraduate members of women's fraternities, stand for good scholarship, for guarding good health, for maintenance of fine standards, and for serving, to the best of our ability, our college community. Cooperation for furthering fraternity life, in harmony with its best possibilities, is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities. We, as Fraternity Women, stand for service through the development of character inspired by the close contact and deep friendship of individual fraternity and Panhellenic life. The opportunity for wide and wise human service, through mutual respect and helpfulness, is the tenet by which we strive to live.

Greetings Potential New Members! On behalf of the Panhellenic Council I would like to welcome you to Fraternity and Sorority Life at Frostburg State University. There are many reasons to join a sorority, all of which are important and personal to each individual woman. The best way to start the process is by looking inward. You process what your reasons are for joining the sorority and what you hope to gain once you are a member. It is also important to know what you would bring to the organization, the characteristics that you believe to be your strengths as well as the interests you have and are passionate about.

A mistake some women make in deciding whether to join or not join a sorority is based on rumors, their friends, or thinking it's not for them before even researching it. Do your own research and compare the organizations. There are many reasons to join a sorority, all of which are important and personal to each individual woman.

Because women have such different interests, there are many chapters in our Fraternity and Sorority Life system, but this manual will only focus on our social National Panhellenic Conference sororities. If becoming a member of a sorority is what you want, you should look for an organization that will closely match what you stand for as a person.

Enjoy becoming a part of a life-long legacy by becoming involved with a Sorority. Remember Sorority life is not for four years, but for a lifetime.

Use this booklet as a helpful resource to answer many questions you may have. I encourage you to read it carefully and then make notes to ask the sororities about when you attend their events. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to browse our website or contact me directly in 209 Fraternity and Sorority Life Office in the Lane University Center.

Meet Your College Panhellenic

The Panhellenic Council at Frostburg State University is the coordinating governing body for all women's sororities. The council is composed of 3 members consisting of yearly rotating executive positions of President, Vice President of Recruitment, and Secretary/Treasurer. Throughout the year the Panhellenic Council provides educational programming, scholarship opportunities, and philanthropic activities for women on the campus of Frostburg State University. During recruitment periods, the executive representatives become Recruitment Counselors where they become unbiased members of the Panhellenic and are trained to provide support and help answer your questions to make your recruitment experience enjoyable. You may know which chapter your recruitment counselor is a member of and this should not influence your recruitment experience or your personal choice in selecting a sorority. As the saying goes, "they give up their letters to help you find yours." We ask that you not try to inquire their affiliation, nor ask any questions with direct reference to their individual affiliation.

Panhellenic Council

Please feel free to contact anyone one of them if you have an issue or question

In the Know for Recruitment

Please know that your safety is our priority and every step is being taken to aid in this priority. As you register on greekxp.com I will develop a contact list for events. You may receive periodic emails about events. I would attend as many events as you can.

I will touch base with you each night and provide you with information regarding a chapter inviting you back to an event and your acceptance to attend. If you have a scheduling conflict and can't virtually attend just email Erin at ehelman0@frostburg.edu and she will contact myself and the rest of the board so we can make sure your experience continues. Invitations back to certain events later in the week are based on a mutual selection process, they can invite you back and you can also decline their invite back.

Although things may be a little different, we are slowly moving back to a full recruitment program. Each event will have a conversation process whether it be philanthropic, scholarship, leadership, or sisterhood. Each evening will open the doors for you a little more into what each sorority is about.

Some events will have more PNMs in attendance than others, and this is no reflection on a chapter. Some chapters may have more members in attendance at an event. This may be that they are in class, tutoring, involved in another event outside of their sorority or working. This demonstrates the reliability, flexibility, and involvement of our chapter women.

After the last sorority event for the week, I will have you sign a binding agreement contract called the Membership Recruitment Acceptance Binding Agreement or MRABA. This agreement will ensure you are informed of your options during recruitment and your obligations in joining. Once you submit this agreement, you are agreeing to accept an invitation of membership from the organization(s) you have listed on your form. You may choose to limit or list only one choice on your MRABA, or you may list all the groups where you attended an invite even for events. If you receive an invitation to membership from a sorority and choose not to continue, you will be ineligible to join another one until the next primary recruitment on the same campus.

If you feel you cannot meet the financial commitment or time commitment, we ask that you NOT ACCEPT the bid provided. You need to notify the Assistant Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life of your decline of a bid acceptance. Once you sign, you are financially bound to any bills that the chapter accrued based on your acceptance. You can be sent to a collection agency for any outstanding bills you owe the chapter. You also are required to complete by a due date, a university sponsored online anti hazing program. If not completed you WILL NOT be initiated. If you have any questions, please feel free to email me at jwinters@frostburg.edu.

Thank you for your interest in sorority life where Empowered Women Empower Women like you.

Frequently Asked Questions

- How do I sign up for recruitment? go to: greekxp.com or email the Assistant Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life at jwinters@frostburg.edu

- Cost: Each sorority has their own system regarding the payments of dues. Most of the financial obligation can be broken down into two areas (one time and semester fees). Depending on the sorority you join, you may expect to pay a little more for additions such as shirts, formals, and socials. Many chapters have payment plans so that your total is not due all at one time. Although cost is something to consider when joining a sorority, remember it is a greater cost during your new member process, but once you are initiated it decreases and becomes very minimal once you graduate.
- Grades: Although each sorority has varying grade point averages, you can always ask to participate in their academic program to increase your cumulative grade point average for the following semester. WE ENCOURAGE THIS!! By participating in their program, it does not mean you are a new member of that organization nor are you being promised a bid if your grades increase.
- I see other women's groups wearing Sorority letters why aren't they here? Most of the organizations that are not involved with the university were once a national sorority but violated a risk management policy so serious that they were removed. These groups are not sororities and will not be recognized by the university or be a sorority. There is no such thing as a local sorority. Just because they wear Sorority Letters does not make them a Sorority organization. Anyone can wear a set of letters, but the sororities in this manual are genuine Sorority organizations and will give you the opportunities outside of collegiate life. Joining one could be detrimental to your academic career at Frostburg State University.
- Why is sorority recruitment so long? We want to allow you the time to look at each organization. Since many of them are similar, you need to research on your own and interview the women as much as they interview you so that you choose an organization that fits you the best.
- I only want to join one organization. When you sign your bid card it is recommended that you choose at least your top two sororities of interest. Since sororities can only choose the amount of members that equal total or quota (whichever is higher) there is a chance that if you only choose one sorority on your bid card, that you will not be chosen and you will have missed an entire semester of sorority life.
- Legacies are daughters, granddaughters or sisters of a member, but you don't have to join that same organization and it also does not guarantee you immediate membership into their organization.
- I am confused on who to choose. My roommate/friends are choosing sorority ABC, I don't really like sorority ABC, and what should I do? You should choose the sorority that you feel that you can see yourself with for the rest of your life.
- Do the sororities haze? No!! Hazing is not only against FSU policy it is also against the law and organizations that have been found hazing have been prosecuted. If the problem is serious and occurring on campus, please contact University Police @ 301-687-4223. If it is serious and off-campus please contact Frostburg City Police @ 301-689-3000. Or email Assistant Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life jwinters@frostburg.edu in any situation.
- What should I do if I have questions or concerns about a National Sorority organization? Research their national webpages first. If the information is not available to you there, then email the Assistant Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life jwinters@frostburg.edu

Contemplation Questions

We Want You To Ask Yourself Are You Ready To Join A Sorority?

1. Do I completely understand my responsibilities to the sorority as a member? What are they?
2. What will my financial responsibilities be? What does this cost include? Payment plan and how does it work? If I don't pay what happens?
3. What is the weekly time commitment? Weekend?
4. What is it exactly that I like about the group? Feel most comfortable? Benefits of joining?
5. What don't I like or what are my concerns?
6. What are their values, and do they match my values?
7. What does the sorority do on campus? What do they do for social activities? Do they follow their national policies and safety guidelines?
8. Does the group promote academics? Grade requirements? Do they have scholarships?
9. How long is the new member program? What does it involve?
10. What are their service activities? Do they hold them as a value? How many hours do I need to complete?
11. Do I have to fundraise? If so how much and how often?
12. Can I be an athlete and join?
13. What makes each sorority different from the others?
14. What leadership roles does the organization provide me? Career opportunities?
15. I have heard that this is a lifetime commitment what does that mean?
16. Are there any opportunities with this organization after college?
17. What past programs they have put on for the university or the community?
18. Can I be in your sorority and also in another organization like APO, SGA, or an academic organization?

Be sure to clear up any unanswered questions prior to Bid Acceptance. By doing this, it allows you, the potential new member, to be sure who you truly fit with, and it allows the organization to choose members that truly want to experience all that they have to offer.

What to Wear:

Dress slacks or casual dress. No leggings or ripped jeans please.

Think about what is important to you? How involved is the chapter in the community and with their service work? What makes you passionate to help others?

What to Wear:

Capris, dark washed jeans and a nice top, leggings and a top that covers. You may be sitting on the floor or working with craft items.

Scholarship/Invite Night

Smart Casual How-to

Leadership Night/Preference Night:

All sororities offer leadership opportunities and along with time management skills this is a sought after employment quality. As a chapter officer you may help coordinate an event or service project, keep records for your chapter, mentor new members, or lead your chapter. By learning leadership skills you become a more well-rounded student, grow as an individual, and have the ability to effect change within a chapter to help it grow and be successful.

Tips:

Look for a chapter that you feel you can come in and help grow, that you see can help you grow. Think about how this chapter will help you live the moral values sororities were founded upon.

What to Wear:

"Business Casual" nice dress slacks and a top, nice dress. No leggings, no jeans or ripped jeans, no formal dresses.

Bid Day:

This is a day of celebrating your life changing experience and goals for the future.

Tip:

Reflect on why you chose this organization, how you can help it grow and be successful and how you now will live the values of this chapter you will pledge to. How can you be a good role model, future mentor, and involved member?

What to Wear:

Jeans and a t-shirt or tank top. You will be given your first sorority shirt on this day.

Ritual:

The sororities MUST follow various policies on a national level so they need to have a pinning ceremony soon after Bid Day. Below is what you may be required to wear.

What to Wear:

Since all new member ceremonies will be performed after Bid Day, you may want to check your wardrobe for the various apparel requested by the sororities and plan accordingly.

- Alpha Sigma Tau- you are required to wear all white, strapless dresses may be worn if an all-white sweater is worn over top. This outfit cannot have any colored buttons, decorations, or jewels on it. NO DENIM!!!
- Delta Zeta- you are required to wear all white (skirt, pants and blouse or shoulders covered dress). This outfit cannot have any colored buttons, decorations, or jewels on it. NO DENIM!!! Strapless dresses may be worn if an all-white sweater is worn over top. No white t-shirts are allowed.
- Alpha Sigma Alpha- you are required to wear all white (skirt and blouse or dress (shoulders covered). This outfit can not have any colored buttons, decorations, or jewels on it. NO DENIM!!!

(some of these dresses would require a sweater over your shoulders)

24 hours after the pinning ceremony is performed the university allows the women to have events with the fraternity men at Frostburg State University only if the men have completed their new member selections. ON BID DAY, YOU SHOULD NOT BE ATTENDING ANY EVENT BY A SORORITY OR AT WHAT APPEARS TO BE A SORORITY HOUSE WHERE ALCOHOL IS BEING SERVED. What is a Unanimous Agreement?

Since 1902, the member groups of NPC have unanimously agreed to pursue certain procedures and ethics, which lead to orderly and ethical conduct. Additionally, each Inter/National President signs the Unanimous Agreements indicating that every alumna and collegiate member will abide by and honor the Unanimous Agreements. These agreements must be incorporated into College and Alumnae Panhellenic procedures and are binding upon all chapters of NPC member groups. Certain Unanimous Agreements have been selected to be listed here based upon the questions received at the NPC Office. For complete information about the Unanimous Agreements, please consult the most recent edition of the NPC Manual of Information available from the NPC Office.
